THE BENEFITS OF SOCIAL MEDIA

Social media is a way for your club to connect with current and past members, prospective members and donors, and friends. It's also an effective way to increase awareness of your club and its activities in your community.

GETTING STARTED WITH SOCIAL MEDIA

GETTING STARTED WITH SOCIAL MEDIA

Social media is an extension of your club online so make it a part of your communications toolkit, along with email, newsletters, and your website.

A social media plan will help you determine what you want to achieve, which social media platforms are right for your club, and what you want to communicate to your online community.

STEP 1: SET GOALS AND OBJECTIVES

Focus your efforts by identifying the objectives you want your club to achieve through social media and setting goals that will mark your progress. Keep your goals specific and measurable. Increasing fans and followers is a good objective. One related goal could be to increase followers by 5% from the previous year.

Tip: When you're writing or sharing a post, ask yourself, "Is this helping to reach our goals?"

SAMPLE GOALS

1. Invite email contacts and Facebook friends to like my club page, with a goal of increasing fans by 10%
2. Add a Donate button to my club's Facebook page to promote our fundraising efforts, with a goal of raising $100
3. Create Facebook events for upcoming club meetings and invite prospective members; increase attendance by 10%
4. Calculate how many donations my page gets through Facebook each month to set a benchmark to inform goal setting

STEP 2: START SMALL

You don't need to create an account on every social media network. Start small and focus your efforts. To decide which platform is right for you:

1. Research the social media networks that are used most widely in your community.
2. Think about who you want to reach and where those people are spending their social media time.
3. Understand the commitment involved. Who can manage your social media presence, and how much time can this person or group dedicate to it?

RECOMMENDED POSTING SCHEDULE

Plan for one hour daily to:

- Find and post content
- Monitor your pages for questions and comments
- Connect with fans and followers online (reply, like, and share relevant posts)

STEP 3: POST CONSISTENTLY

As you learn more about your fans and followers, you'll grow more confident about what types of content resonate with them. You can cultivate your social media fan base by commenting on followers' posts and responding to their messages.

If your club can maintain consistent quality and responsiveness, you'll win over your followers.

Tip: A content calendar will help you commit to a weekly routine. More information on creating a calendar to come.

CREATING YOUR CONTENT PLAN

Research and trends show that when it comes to social media, people engage with visual content (videos, photos, infographics) because it:

- Relates to their passions
- Gives them ideas and inspiration
- Helps them achieve their goals
- Entertains them

Show your club in action: helping in the community, networking, and socializing. Keep club meeting content to a minimum.

Examples

- Share stories from Rotary's website, rotary.org/news
- Promote club events
- Highlight community involvement
- Feature your members
- Post photos from special events or service projects
- Share a mix of local club-focused content and content available on Rotary.org and through the Brand Center

BUILDING A CONTENT CALENDAR

A content calendar will keep you organized and help ensure that your social media content is always fresh and accurate. Use your calendar to coordinate communication across all of your promotional channels, including social media, email, public relations, websites, and newsletters.

You might want your calendar to include special Rotary events, like the Rotary International Convention and World Polio Day, along with United Nations observances.

CREATING CONTENT TO SHARE

CONTENT TYPES

When creating or reposting content, think about your audience and write in a way that reflects the best version of your club. Does it help tell the People of Action story, Rotary's new public image campaign? The content should make the reader want to learn more about your club and Rotary.

COMMON CONTENT TYPES INCLUDE:

WRITTEN

The most flexible content type. Post a status update on your Facebook page to remind your audience about an upcoming event, write a blog post about a guest speaker and link to it on your social media networks, or tweet about your next service project.

VIDEO

Today's technology makes it easy to tell your story through video. Take a behind-the-scenes video at your next event or record a series of interviews that feature club members and partners in your community.

VISUAL

From photos to GIFs and infographics, visuals can bring your club's story to life. Add an image to existing content to draw attention to your message in a compelling way.

CREATING CONTENT TO SHARE

SOURCING CONTENT

As you develop your content plan, decide how much original content to use and how much content to share from other sources. Experiment to find out what resonates with your fans and followers.

Here are some sources you can use to tell your club's story:

- Rotary's social media networks: Find a list of all our networks at rotary.org/social-media.
- Trusted partners or organizations: Share content from Rotary's partners, local news sources, and organizations you partner with in the community to give your posts variety and relevance.
- People in your club, district, or zone: Take advantage of posts that other Rotary members have created. By doing so, you give your audience a sense of the activities and vibrancy of your organization, and you support your fellow members' publicity efforts.
