District Governor Nancy's Message September 2015

September signals a change of season as Autumn arrives. We find the daylight hours are getting somewhat shorter and the evenings feeling cooler. September means back to school routines start as students head back to classes.

Some of the Rotary Monthly themes have changed as of July 2015. September is now recognized as Basic Education and Literacy Month; and has also become one of the six Areas of Focus in Rotary. Rotary's goal is to strengthen the capacity of communities to support basic education and literacy, reduce gender disparity in education, and increase adult literacy.

Some Rotary history concerning Literacy. In 1985 Rotary declared basic literacy to be a pre-condition to the development of peace. And in 1992 Rotary established the first Literacy Task Force to help Districts and Clubs create literacy projects. Can you imagine what life would be like if you could not read or write? Now imagine for a moment a world where every person is able to read and write. Then imagine what a world at peace would look like. So it may well be that the road to world peace is paved with basic education and books!

The definition of Literacy is "the ability to use printed and written information to function in society, to achieve one's goals, and to develop one's knowledge and potential". (2003 National Assessment of Adult Literacy). Being literate means being able to read and write at a level to be successful in today's world. It also means being proficient at math, knowing how to use technology, knowing how to solve problems and make decisions.

Kofi Annan said "Literacy is a bridge from misery to hope. For everyone, everywhere, literacy is, along with education in general, a basic human right.... Literacy is, finally, the road to human progress and the means through which every man, woman and child can realize his or her full potential."

It has estimated that more than one billion people - three fifths of them women - do not have the literacy and numeracy skills needed to hold a job or get a better one. This situation makes them vulnerable to hunger and health issues, as well as an extreme poverty cycle from which they will never be able to break free. And it is not only in third world countries this situation exists; there are numbers of people in our own Communities who cannot read or write. And study after study has shown that educating girls is one of the most effective ways to fight poverty. It has been proven that a mother's literacy level is one of the most significant predictors of a child's future literacy - more significant than income level and employment status. Once adults and children are educated, they have a better chance of breaking the deadly cycle of poverty. Education improves the lives of not only the individual, but the entire family.

Most clubs in our District have wonderfully successful literacy programs. If we, as Rotarians, can help people in our communities and around the world to read, write and achieve numeracy skills; we can lift these folks from poverty and aspire toward world peace. Carry on the good work to 'Be a Gift to the World' through your support of Basic education and literacy!

George and I continue on our journey through this amazing District 6330. We are appreciating your wonderful Rotary welcome and generous hospitality shown to us when we visit your clubs. One of my focuses this year is to 'Grow' in Rotary. Growing our Rotary knowledge means educating ourselves. Rotary Leadership Institute is being offered in Owen Sound September 26th. I encourage you to consider attending.

Enjoy the Autumn days! Yours in Rotary Service and Friendship

Nancy

September 8 is International Literacy Day!

On November 17, 1965, UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization) proclaimed September 8 to be International Literacy Day and it was first celebrated in 1966. It is a day to recognize the importance of literacy and the connection of illiteracy to poverty and to prejudice against women.

Rotary clubs are encouraged to celebrate International Literacy Day during September. Some ways to recognize the event include:

- 1 invite a speaker with a literacy connection such as the library or a school
- 2 thank a speaker with a library donation or donation of a book to a school
- 3 launch a literacy project in your club
- 4 invite the District Literacy Chair to your club

Please email me your projects and I will share them on the District website, mdubois23@cogeco.ca

"Ask Jack" – almost anything.....about growing your club!!

Ask Jack to help your club find its way to membership growth. We'll print your membership problems, your tips, your successes and failures, but never your name. Write to "Ask Jack" today at askjackaboutmembership@ gmail.com and maybe you'll see your query in next month's Bridge!

Dear Jack,

I met someone at a community event (unrelated to Rotary) who seems like someone I'd like to ask to come to my Rotary club meeting. I feel odd contacting this very dynamic woman, a virtual stranger, with this kind of an invitation...?

"Paul"

Jack Answers:

Good thing you are an active member of your community. This is the way Rotarians make their influence felt. Your discomfort at an appropriate approach to a person who has made a powerful impression upon you is a measure of your sensitivity and respect.

How about these two options:

1) Contact her at her business card location (you did get her card?!!), through LinkedIn or another similar professional social media. Remind her of last night's event and express your interest in something specific which struck you during your conversation. Remind her of your connection with Rotary (surely you mentioned it last night...!) and ask her if she might be interested in delivering a brief presentation on the subject, to your Rotary Club. As the host for a guest speaker, you will need to get a brief professional bio as a speaker's bio, which will also make it easier for you to get to know her a little better. These simple interactions can break the ice for you to build a cordial relationship founded upon Rotary.

Then, like all relationships, just follow your good instincts to wherever they lead you. Whether she develops an interest in Rotary or not, your Rotary membership has benefited you in meeting and making a new business acquaintance and possibly even, friend.

2) Ask your Club Membership Chair, Vocational Chair or Speaker Coordinator, to take the steps outlined above, on your behalf.

This is definitely a win/win opportunity for you.

Run with it...and if you need some help, just Ask Jack.

A great revenue generator!

The members of the Rotary Club of St. Thomas nicknamed their food trailer, the Fun Trailer (photo above), several years ago. It has been a good revenue generator helping to raise funds for a variety of projects since it was purchased from Mobile Kitchens Canada Inc. in May 2009. It is still in excellent working condition but clubs change over the years and now the club's Foundation is offering it for sale to any service club in the district. It is a 28foot Fifth Wheel trailer that is fully equipped for food service.

Inquiries should be forwarded to the Rotary Club of St. Thomas Foundation President Trudy Kanellis, tkanelliks@rogers.com or Foundation Director Malcolm Rust gr8celebrations@yahoo.ca (519-207-0771).

Polio Watch

Joan Fisher, Rotary Club of London South

August 11, 2015 polio eradication celebrated another victory – Nigeria being free of new cases of wild polio virus for a full year! While a quiet milestone, it's a huge step forward in removing polio as a threat to the entire African continent. If this status can be maintained for another two years, Nigeria will be conferred with the designation of "polio free" by the World Health Organization.

We all have a part to play in defeating polio permanently. Please remember.....

Membership - ATTENDANCE

I'm writing club secretaries, presidents and presidents-elect to clarify a misperception several clubs have told me is getting in the way of membership growth. The elephant in the living room? ATTENDANCE

Let's step back. Several years ago, the Council on Legislation (Rotary's governing body) declared almost ANY legitimate Rotary activity as a makeup. This includes not only attending another club's meeting, but also a committee meeting, working on a project (some clubs say for at least 1 or 2 hours), a Board meeting, etc. Etc. means anything that can reasonably be called a Rotary service activity. Now, of course to get "credit" for a makeup, the member has to report that qualifying activity to the club secretary. Most clubs use a sign-in sheet at a committee meeting or project and then forward the whole list to the secretary.

Why did the COL do that? Because the point of tracking attendance is not to make people come to meetings. When measured this way, it's a measure of engagement — a Key Performance Indicator (KPI) of how your Rotary club is doing at involving members in Rotary activities. Believe me, we have the data to prove that when a member isn't engaged and involved in the club, it's a short trip to a resignation letter. Look at your members' attendance percentages. Those at the bottom of the list are thinking about resigning. What can you do to get them engaged, involved, and hopefully passionate about something the club is doing?

More importantly, tracking engagement (attendance is a surrogate) is an important way of ensuring that members get the return on their Rotary investment they deserve. Members who don't show up for club activities aren't getting the benefit of Rotary, and if we can identify those folks early, we can intervene and get them involved in something they're interested in.

So, let's not only treat attendance as a KPI for engagement, but let's explain it the same way to prospects. Rather than "You have to attend 4 meetings a month", say, "We expect you to participate in some Rotary activity 4 times a month — you pick the activity that works for you, and you pick the time." I think that's a whole different message, and actually what we're attempting to promote and measure. It's not about making people come to meetings. It's about offering them a platform where they, in their own ways and based on their own preferences, can Be a Gift to the World.
