

Doing Good in the World

How the annual fund works:

Three ways to give:

DIRECT giving. You designate the program you would like your dollars to directly support.

ANNUAL fund. This fund is split 50/50 between the Foundation pool that supports district grants, and the World Fund, which supports programs worldwide.

ENDOWMENT fund. The principal stays untouched, but the interest earned helps ensure the Foundation's long-term charitable efforts. Painless ways to contribute to the Endowment fund are through estate planning, life insurance, bequests and donations of real estate.

Your generosity is recognized:

A cumulative contribution for $1,000 earns a Rotarian recognition as a Paul Harris Fellow. Higher levels of giving also are recognized. The distinction is named after the founder of Rotary International. A Sustaining Membership recognition comes with a commitment of at least $100 a year, and will eventually lead to a Paul Harris Fellow recognition. It follows the Rotary Foundation phrase, "Every Rotarian Every Year."
