

Troy Rotary Water Project

Troy Rotary is working with the Kathmandu Mid-Town Rotaracts to help a village of 22 families in Nepal. They are working toward lasting change and improved health in this village by giving hygiene training, improving the wells, adding toilets, and giving a BioSand filter to each household. Troy Rotary also sponsors BioSand Filter workshops. For information about future workshop dates contact John and Eileen Heasley. ehasley@wideopenwest.com.