

Adventure in Understanding Books

Name	Author
Lament for a First Nation Williams Treaties affecting hunting, fishing, and land rights of Alderville, Curve Lake, Hiawatha, Scugog and	Peggy Blair
Buffalo Shout Salmon Cry a collection of 38 essays examining the clash between First Nation and settler cultures	edited by I
The Comeback the history of Aboriginal/European relationship and the failure of Canada to live up to the terms of	John Ralston
Dancing with a Ghost (Exploring Aboriginal Reality) examination of unspoken truths and instances of cultural insensitivity.	Rupert Ross
Returning to the Teachings (Exploring Aboriginal Justice).	Rupert Ross
Children of the Broken Treaty a look at the roles of provincial and federal governments in First Nations' education	Charlie Angus
IN THIS TOGETHER 15 stories of Truth and Reconciliation	edited by I
ONE NATIVE LIFE a collection of personal vignettes from throughout his life	Richard Wright
Braiding Sweetgrass a botanist and Potawatomi woman braids indigenous teachings into an understanding of cultural reflection	Robin Kim
They Called Me Number One a life story by a 3rd generation Residential School survivor	Bev Sellars
Heartbeat of the People music and dance of the northern pow-wow	Tara Brow

ir other Ontario First nations

Steve Heinrichs

on Saul of various treaties.

ss

ss

gus

Danielle Metcalfe-Chen

agamese

merer

ns

s

ner