Overcoming adversity, resiliency and the practical use of "small consistent actions"	No	Sam	Demma	Sam@samdemma.com	No	Rod Craig	I am a local speaker that talks about overcoming adversity, resiliency and the practical use of "small consistent actions". I would like to come and speak to your rotary club in the near future. Here is a video of me speaking: https://www.ted.com/talks/sam_demma_small_consistent_actions ; www.samdemma.com
Positive Peace	No	Katie	Fettes	katie.fettes@gmail.com	Yes	Lesley Barmania	I am associated with the Institute for Economics and Peace as an ambassador. The trainings provided by IEP have prepared me to deliver presentations on the concept of "positive peace" and to discuss the Global Peace Index and Positive Peace Index, two of their tools for analyzing peace and quantifying its economic value.
Creating Healthy Workplaces by Dealing Effectively With Harassment	No	April	Terreau	April@NIAssociates.ca	No	Peter Thoem	How to deal effectively with harassment and what employers responsibilities are around providing a workplace that is free of harassment. Also how do you know if harassment is happening in your workplace if no one is coming forward? I talk about all of these topics and how to address them effectively. I have a podcast that aims to help employers create workplaces that work for everyone. Please feel free to listen to see the type of speaker I am. https://open.spotify.com/show/36L18PKiXuXTf7rF3jeJsG And my website www.niassociates.ca .

The Owl Foundation	Yes	Peter	Thoem	peterthoem@gmail.com	Yes		It is said that if you've got squirrels in your neighbourhood, then you also have owls! Really? How come I never see them? This slide presentation is targeted at a general adult audience and includes dozens of spectacular shots of owls taken here in Ontario. It shows you how owls are everywhere in our culture; they have even made it into our government. The show also deals with the mishaps (mostly man-made) that befall owls. And how the Vineland-based Owl Foundation is dedicated to rescuing and rehabilitating injured and orphaned owls. I offer this presentation to raise funds to rescue and treat owls; I request a speaker's fee of at least $100 payable to The Owl Foundation.
Elevate Rotaract	No	Jananee	Savuntharanathan	jananeesnathan@gmail.com	Yes		I share my insight on how I believe Rotary will be impacted by the planned Rotaract growth by sharing my individual journey from Interact to Rotaract to Rotary and becoming the youngest Rotary Club President in District 7080
Women in Rotary	No	Dr. Sylvia	Whitlock	sylvia5@msn.com	Yes	Jay Thomblison	Dr Whitlock is from the RC of Duarte, California, and was the first woman to hold the position of club president within Rotary in 1987, just after the US Supreme Court ruled supporting women for membership in Rotary. As she is located in California, she is best suited for lunch or dinner meetings due to the time zones for zoom calls.
Rotary Sponsorship Project - Rise as part of the Guatemala Literacy Project	No	Joe	Berninger	joe@guatemalaliteracy.org	Yes	Lesley Barmania	This is a dynamic, live 20-minute presentation addressing important topics like widespread illiteracy and rising migration rates in Guatemala, and how providing scholarships to the poorest children in the hemisphere is the key to lasting change.
