

Your previous presentations were all for individual members of the BoD.

But the Bof Directors does not lie in one person alone. The Board is a collective of members that all can contribute to the club's success is different ways.

The BoD work as a Team. Teamwork is critical

1) All members have different skills Take advantage of this. Work together and Listen then 4) collaborate

2) Each of you have a vision that will help set a direction to success. Some ideas, that when shared can be seeds to better ideas. Don't be afraid to share

3) Each of you will have a sense of Creativity..... Thinking Outside the Box can be the nucleus to great results

5) Each will have a strength based on their experience and knowledge; Benefit from other's Experience; Share your Experience

7) The key is to communicate with each other. LISSEN Share ideas.... Accepting each others' strengths Feel confident about your own

8) Setting GOALS is a tool to Plan, Guide, Control and Succeed.

9) The result is Leadership as an individual and a Team.

Yes.... teamwork is critical to the success of working Board of Directors

You need Individuals on the board that demonstrate

- Creativity
- Ability to Collaborate
- Those Specific Skills
- Vision
- Ability to Communicate
- Leadership traits

But critical to all this To make the Team work ... there needs to one characteristic shared amongst members.... There needs to be something that binds all this together....

RESPECT!!

This means that you are showing a regard for their abilities and worth, Valuing their feelings and views..... even if you don't necessarily agree with them. You give them consideration you would expect for yourself.
