Thank you for your interest in SLAPSHOT. To apply, please complete this form.

If you are under 18 years old, all forms must be signed by your parent/guardian to enable your full participation in the SLAPSHOT program.

Please consider the following information in anticipation of your week of personal & leadership development activities with 40 high school students, sponsored by Rotary District 7090 Clubs in Southern Ontario, CANADA, & Western New York State, USA – all eager to grow & learn together, just like you! PROGRAM DETAILS will be provided by YOUR SPONSORING ROTARY CLUB in advance of the SLAPSHOT 2021 weekend.

Attendance – Students are encouraged to attend all days, but are expected for a minimum of 4 (over 50%) of the virtual programming.

Promptness – To make the most of limited time available, log-in on time for all leadership sessions.

Participation – As a valuable member of your group, it’s important to speak freely and listen attentively.

Responsibility – As a student leader, you are expected to represent your school responsibly.

Interruptions – Please minimize distractions so you can fully engage with presenters and peers.

Follow-up – Since an objectives of SLAPSHOT is the establishment and development of Interact Clubs in local high schools, we expect you to use the leadership skills that you learn through your SLAPSHOT experience to help promote and foster the development of such clubs and activities in your school.
