

The Legacy NE

Doing Good in the World for 100 Years

We can't help but wonder what Arch Klumph, the founder of The Rotary Foundation, would think about TRF's 100th Anniversary? He'd be so proud of what Rotarians have done to grow OUR foundation from its humble beginnings of $26.50 to become one of the world most significant foundations with a billion dollar endowment.

We will celebrate this incredible milestone in Arch Klumph's hometown of Cleveland and we plan to do his legacy proud. The Legacy Zone will feature world-class speakers and entertainment, more fellowship time in the House of Friendship and a special event called Rotary Goes Bollywood! Of course, a trip to Cleveland wouldn't be complete without a visit to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

We know you will want to join the celebration at the Legacy  NE Institute. There are lots of surprises and the hits just keep on coming!

Rotary International Director Jennifer Jones & Nick Krayacich

ROCK AND ROLL HALL OF FAME

No trip to Cleveland is complete without a visit to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

On Saturday afternoon, you will have free time to enjoy Cleveland. Your Registration Packet will include a voucher for admission to this iconic museum. The museum is within walking distance of the Renaissance Hotel. Do NOT miss this opportunity!

Check out <http://www.rockhall.com/> to learn more.

FUN FACTS ABOUT ARCH KLUMPH

Born in Conneautville, Pennsylvania on June 6, 1869, he is a direct descendent on his mother's side of James Fennimore Cooper, the American novelist.
