

JFK aide to speak at Marlborough Rotary Club Meeting

The Marlborough Rotary Club is delighted to announce that Dan Fenn, former aide to President John F., Kennedy, founding Director of the JFK Museum, and current Adjunct Lecturer at the Harvard University Kennedy School of Government, will speak at the club's regular luncheon meeting on Thursday, October 9.

Dan Fenn is an Adjunct Lecturer in Executive Programs, John F. Kennedy School of Government. In addition to his involvement at the Kennedy School, Fenn was the Founding Director of the John F. Kennedy Library in Boston, which is part of the National Archives and Records Administration. He was most recently special assistant to the Chancellor, University of Massachusetts, Boston. His earlier government experience includes service as a staff assistant to President John F. Kennedy, Commissioner and Vice-Chairman of the United States Tariff Commission, and Special Assistant to Senator Benjamin A. Smith (D) of Massachusetts. He has recently served two terms as an elected Selectman in his home town of Lexington, Massachusetts. He is the author or editor of numerous books and articles.

Visitors are always welcome at Marlborough Rotary Club meetings:

Date: Thursday, October 9

Time: 12:15 p.m.

Place: Fish Restaurant & Wine Bar

Corner Bolton St. & Granger Blvd. (Routes 20 & 85)

Marlborough

Cost of Meal: $23.00

RSVP: 508-409-6619 Ext. 1