What: The “House of Friendship” will be set up to receive a sample project from all clubs and fellowships in Rotary District 7910. District Governor Jim Fusco has asked each club or fellowship to display one project or fundraiser with which they are involved.

Why: The “House of Friendship” provides a great venue from which the members attending the conference can bring back new ideas to their respective clubs and fellowships.

The “House of Friendship” provides a display area for each club or fellowship wishing to share information about and promote projects. Space will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis.
