

How to Run a Rotaract Club

Dr. Victor Tom

PP Rotary Club of Bedford

MIT Rotaract Club Advisor

Selected Topics for Running a Rotaract Club

- Holding meetings
- Service Projects
- University/Community Engagement
- Rotary Engagement
- Presidential Citation Criteria
 - Mandatory Activities
 - Additional Activities

Engaging Meetings

- Twice a month meetings on a regular posted schedule
- Meetings should include
 - Socialization
 - Club business
 - Program presentation
 - Keep them fun
- Sponsor Club can be a source of program ideas
- Send out bi-monthly meeting newsletter to keep members informed

Implementing Service Projects

- Identify service needs; local or international
- Develop project plan
- Identify funding
- The sponsor club as well as other clubs can provide assistance

University/Community Engagement

- Universities can be a great source of:
 - Program ideas
 - Service project ideas
 - Club members
- Can partner with other organizations
 - Engineers Without Borders

Rotary Engagement

- Rotary advisor can help connect Rotaract Club young adults to a global network of:
 - Friendship
 - Engagement
 - Action

Worldwide Rotary, Rotaract & Interact Clubs

Attaining 2015-16 Presidential Citation

• Presidential Citation Criteria

— Mandatory Activities (complete both)

- Reporting Club President or advisor on Rotary.org
- Confirm club's membership roster on Rotary.org

— Additional Activities (complete at least 3)

- Update Club's meeting location, time and day, on Rotary.org
- Have at least 15 Club members reported on Rotary.org
- Post at least one completed service initiative on Rotary Showcase
- Post a project in need of assistance or contribute to a project on Rotary Ideas on Rotary.org
- Have the Club or any of its members contribute to either Rotary's Annual Fund or PolioPlus
- Maintain Club website/social media pages and report on Rotary.org