Judith-Marie Brown

Judi was born & raised in the environs of Brisbane. She left school at 16 to enter her nursing training at the Royal Brisbane Hospital. 5 years later Judi went to London, UK, to gain further nursing experience and then worked for 1 year in South Africa. She then returned to Brisbane where she married and had 3 children and her real interest and passion for midwifery began. Judi's involvement in this field led her to becoming the President of Australian Midwives and the Asia Pacific representative to The International Confederation of Midwives where she served 3 yrs as its director. Judi has travelled to 72 countries and has consulted on midwifery development for these NGO's in India, Afghanistan and the Middle East. Judi is a member of the Morialta Rotary Club.
