Business Sales Consultancy

THURSDAY 27 JULY 1PM

Bevan's Topic

The state of the business market in our state

"Business quite generally has some most interesting developments playing out right now and the State Budget Tax situation both adds to and changes the prospects for many." - Bevan Roberts

Bevan is an experienced Manager across an extremely wide range of Industries which include Tourism, Education, Primary Industry, Distribution and Automotive.

A South Australian, he worked interstate and nationally for six years, returning to South Australia to establish his own business which he ran successfully for 25 years.

He joined Dale Wood Business Sales Consultancy in 2005.

As CEO and now Proprietor, he is responsible for the market positioning and development of the business.

He was an appointed member of the Business Development Council of South Australia for six years and Chaired its Economic and Finance Subcommittee.

As an accredited Family Business Adviser he both speaks and mentors on business issues and trends, recently adding accreditation from the Exit Planning Institute, a prominent body based in Chicago.

He is an active Board Member of the Glenelg Golf Club and Volleyball SA.
