

Rotary District 5790 “Global Grants”

Highlights for 2019 – 2020

Global Grants Chair: Scott Hendricks (817-579-2637/jscotthendricks@yahoo.com)

Global Scholars: Conrad Heede(ccheede@aol.com)

Purpose: Global Grants provide clubs the opportunity to plan and execute large, long-term projects that are sustainable and measurable. They create international partnerships and align with Rotary’s Six Areas of Focus.

Types of activities/categories supported:

Humanitarian projects, Scholarships for graduate-level studies and Vocational Training Teams (Teaching or Learning)

Deadlines

- August 1, 2019
  - Grants to be considered for DDF awards must be posted and clearly defined on Matchinggrants.org with all pertinent information
  - Each club will be guaranteed DDF up to 25% of their APF giving for the 2016-17 Rotary year on the Fundraising Analysis report. Clubs not approved by this date may be considered for the October 1, 2019, award date.
- October 1, 2019
  - Global Grant DDF awards will be based on available funds, the sponsoring club giving over the last three years, support from other 5790 clubs, and the quality of the proposed grant. Clubs not approved by this date may be considered for the January 1, 2020 award date.
- January 1, 2020
  - If DDF is available, a third Grants Committee review will be held after Jan 1 to consider pending or new 5790 submissions and DDF requests from other districts.
