

FREDERICK T. "RORY" MCGUIRE

Honorary Member, Rotary Club of Cleveland, OH USA
Grandson of Arch C. Klumph, Father of The Rotary Foundation

Frederick T. "Rory" McGuire III is the son of Frederick T. "Fritz" McGuire, Jr. and Kathryn Klumph McGuire. Thus, he is Arch Klumph's grandson and the brother of actress Maeve McGuire.

Maeve and Rory with "Arch"
2017 RI Convention in Atlanta

Rory grew up in Cleveland and attended John Carroll University, earning bachelor's and master's degrees in English in 1970 and 1973, respectively. He later went to Case Western Reserve University and earned a master's degree in library science.

During his undergraduate years, Rory took a four-year "sabbatical" to work full-time before returning to complete his degree. During this break in his studies, he worked at the American Automobile Association office.

After graduating from John Carroll, he lived at his mother's home on Derbyshire Road and worked at the Shaker Square Travel Agency.

Rory has a son from a former marriage who now lives and works in New York City. He married Suzanne in 1983 and after Rory left the travel business and Suzanne retired from her job with Cuyahoga County, they spent a few years traveling and spending time together. Then Suzanne went back to work, this time teaching Latin at Hathaway Brown School. Rory began a second career in the hotel business, working first for the old Holiday Inn-Lakeside and then for the Hyatt Hotel in the Old Arcade in Downtown Cleveland.

Rory McGuire is an Honorary Member of the Rotary Club of Cleveland, OH and a Multiple Paul Harris Fellow. Through the years he has always been honored to share his many remembrances of his grandfather Arch and helped to "bring him alive" during his remarks at the inaugural luncheon of the Arch Klumph Society held during the 2005 RI Centennial Convention in Chicago, IL where the first members were inducted.