A roundup of Rotary news

Delivering COVID-19 vaccine into dense forest

Rotary members in Demerara, Guyana, are using their disease fighting experience to penetrate dense forests and bring COVID-19 vaccines to indigenous communities that would otherwise not have access to them. Club members and health officials used boats to reach and immunize villagers as well as distribute much needed food, clothing, medicine. It's just one way that Rotary clubs are using their experience in fighting disease to promote vaccinations and fight the pandemic. Read more

Follow up on membership leads for member growth

Clubs can hear about potential members by word of mouth or from membership leads through My Rotary. KR Parthasarathy, assistant governor of Rotary District 3150 in Hyderabad, India, explains why it's important to follow up on these leads and explain the value of Rotary to prospective members. He shares the story of remarkable growth in his district in a blog post on Rotary Voice. Read more.

Calling all breakout sessions

Do you have an idea or project that you want to share with your Rotary family? Submit a proposal for a breakout session for the 2022 Rotary Convention in Houston to help others sharpen their leadership skills. Breakout sessions also introduce attendees to new ideas for projects, fundraising, membership growth, and more! Help us build a diverse program by submitting your proposal online by 30 September.

What would you do?

Each month, Rotary magazine shares reader answers to ethical dilemmas they may face in their clubs. Check out the dilemma for the December issue and send your responses to magazine@rotary.org.
