Rotary International District 5650 Presents

The Cadwallader Award

CURT PETERS

Rotary District Conference
August 12, 2017

Curt Peters

Curt was brought into Suburban Rotary on October 2, 2003, by his mother, Joanne Peters. Joanne has been a member of Suburban since 1993 and was the Cadwallader award recipient in 2009. Curt is the owner of Integrated Solutions, a company that has been providing IT Services, Software Solutions, and Cloud Solutions since 1990. Prior to founding Integrated Solutions, Curt received his Bachelor of Science Degree from Iowa State University in Engineering. Through Integrated Solutions, Curt has provided computer hardware, software, and support to both Suburban Rotary and District 5650.

Club Service: Curt served as a Suburban Rotary Board member from 2014-2017 and was President of the Club in 2015-2016. He is the current Chair for the Monster Mash run/walk and has served as various Committee Chairs for Suburban Rotary, but his passion is Youth Exchange. He has served for 9 years as Youth Exchange Chair for Suburban Rotary.

Curt is recognized as a Patron of Suburban Rotary for his support of the club Foundation and for sponsoring a scholarship for a student with special needs.

Community Service: In addition to his Club service activities, Curt has been involved in many of Suburban Rotary's local service projects including meal packaging, Salvation Army bell ringing, house painting for Brush Up Nebraska, Monster Mash to prevent childhood obesity, and Crestridge Adopt a School programs.

District 5650 Service: Curt has helped with District PETS Leadership training, presented at District Conference and has served as the District Youth Exchange Chair.

International Service: Curt's passion for the Youth Exchange program is both in administration and in working with the students. Curt has been a Host Dad for 11 exchange students. He attends, presents, and drives students to 5-7 meetings a year for Youth Exchange. He helped set up the website and assisted with the North American Youth Exchange Network Conference which was hosted by District 5650.

Curt is a Paul Harris Fellow+5 and a member of the Paul Harris Society. He has also attended 4 Rotary Intl Conventions including Brazil and Korea.
