The Lincoln Rotary Club #14 Accepting Nominations for Nebraskan of the Year

Lincoln, NE– The Lincoln Rotary Club #14 is seeking nominations for the Nebraskan of the Year 2018 by August 7, 2018.

The Rotary #14 Nebraskan of the Year award was established to honor and recognize the accomplishments of a Nebraskan who has distinguished himself or herself through service to others in keeping with ideals of Rotary International. To make your nomination visit www.rotary14.org/noy.

Each year one honoree from a statewide field of nominees is selected based on honesty, integrity and concern for others; service in charitable and civic causes and; leadership and significant accomplishments in his/her profession or volunteer activities.

Previous winners of the Nebraskan of the Year Award include business leader Anthony Messineo, Jr., educator Dr. Martin Massengale, businessman and philanthropist Duane Acklie, former U. S. Congressman and Husker Coach and Athletic Director Dr. Tom Osborne, U. S. Poet Laureate Ted Kooser, Civil Rights Leader Leola Bullock and former Nebraska Governor Charles Thone.

The 2018 event will be held October 30, 2018 at Embassy Suites in Lincoln.
