The Rotary Foundation

Increase our Impact:	Omaha Suburban: they were able to give $10,000 to Polio from their Annual Car Show
Expand our Reach:	Seward: they had their first ever global grant working with a Rotary Club in the Bahamas
Enhance Participation Engagement:	Western Douglas County: out of 20 members, they had four new Paul Harris Fellows
Ability to Adapt:	Omaha West: food packaging: they changed the date, adapted by adding safety measures and worked with other Omaha clubs to coordinate volunteers and packaged over 31,000 meals

Membership

Increase our Impact:	Shenandoah: they changed their dues structure and added sponsorships for younger members or those struggling with covid
Expand our Reach:	Omaha Downtown: they added 18 new members and focused on diversity in their board
Enhance Participation Engagement:	Lincoln South: they were innovative and sought out new projects to keep their members engaged
Ability to Adapt:	Lincoln 14: they added several ways to communicate with members, held meetings virtually with speakers from around the world

Public Image

Increase our Impact:	Fairbury: they added corn hole sets to the city park with encouraged the city to add more games to the park to encourage more people to visit
Expand our Reach:	Council Bluffs Noon: they saw that there was a need for wheelchairs to help elderly people get into the vaccination places so they gathered wheelchairs and volunteered their time to help wheel people into the building
Enhance Participation Engagement:	Lincoln 14: they were awarded several awards and had those published in various publications.
Ability to Adapt:	Norfolk: Music in the Park: they had to get special permits from the city, marked off the park for social distancing and had several hand sanitizing stations throughout the
