

Main Menu

Home ▶ FAQs

- Home
- Welcome
- Video - Soar into History
- Venues
- Registration
- Accommodation
- Keynote Speakers
- Pre-Conference Events
- Program
- Sponsors
- Getting there
- Attractions
- Breaking News
- Downloads
- FAQs
- Contact us
- About Us

Frequently Asked Questions

- When is the Conference?
 The 2013 District Conference is being held in Nowra on the south-coast of NSW from Friday 15 to Sunday 17 March, 2013. The Conference begins with pre-dinner drinks on Friday and concludes at lunch time on Sunday
- Where is the Conference?
 The Conference venue is the Shoalhaven Entertainment Centre, designed by internationally renowned Cox Architects and opened in 2008.
- When is the Official Opening?
 At Friday's Welcome Dinner
- Why should I attend the Conference, and what will I learn?
- To share fellowship and meet other Rotarians and their partners
 - To hear inspiring speakers
 - To develop a greater understanding of, and enthusiasm for, all the Avenues of Service and the great programmes of Rotary, local, national and international. This is a great way for new Rotarians to “come up to speed”
 - Ideal for new members and their partners to get a better idea of the broad range of activities and good works that Rotary engages in
 - To celebrate being a proud Rotarian.
- What is the Conference theme (and why)?
- “Soar into History”
 - It will be the last conference of District 9680 as the district will become a larger District 9685 from 1 July 2013
- Location - why Nowra?
- The region is blessed with some of the most scenically beautiful landscapes on the east coast of Australia
 - You will be able to visit the lush rainforests of the Kangaroo Valley
 - Many miles of exquisite beaches along the Pacific
 - Award winning wineries
 - Stunning golf courses and clubs
 - Bush, beach & river walks
 - Dolphin & whale watching
 - Water sports & diving tours
 - Antiques and local markets
 - What else is there to do? Click here to find out
- What will the program highlights include?
- Like all good Rotary conferences, the 2013 District Conference will blend fellowship and inspiration
 - Pre Conference events including golf & a river cruise. More details elsewhere on this site
 - Friday night opening, casual dinner, including introducing the GSE teams. We suggest that Clubs wear their Club shirts
 - Five (5) plenary sessions based on Avenues of Service with great speakers and musical interludes
 - Saturday Night at the Fleet Air Museum will allow you to dress to the theme

- Full details and online registrations are available on this website
 - Full registration fees are $390. The cost reduces to $350 if you register by 30 November 2012 and are fully paid by 14 February 2013)
 - Various packages are available. You can register for the whole event (with both dinners), or just for the Saturday and Sunday. Additional tickets for the two dinners are available.
 - Registration is online from this website
 - Accommodation booking is separate but available on this website
- What will it cost and how do I register:
- May I invite my non-Rotarian friends or family?
- How do I pay by Credit Card?
- How do I register my wife to attend the dinners only?
- What is the cancellation policy?
- Yes, of course. Friends and family may be added to your registration, or register themselves either as a full delegate or for one of the packages.
- You do not need to have a PayPal account in order to pay. But you do need to select the PayPal option to pay by Credit Card. Follow these instructions
- If your partner wishes to attend only the Friday and/or Saturday nights, then please purchase the extra tickets on your registration. A joint registration requires one of the Conference packages to be first selected for each person.
- Please visit the cancellation page under 'Registration' on the main menu of this website.