

BEYOND THE FOUR WALLS OF YOUR CLUB

OPTIONS

Isolate: to detach or separate so as to be alone

Integrate: search for better ways to enhance our strengths

BENEFITS OF GOING BEYOND

Meet new people

Interact with own Club members

Get new ideas

See good work in action

Encourage members to explore

Understanding of other communities

OTHER CLUBS

Combined projects

Club visits – including Rotaract

Combined meetings

Make-ups

100% attendance month

Meetings off-site

ROTARY FAMILIES

Partner's nights

Social activities

- Picnics
- Visits
- Children's evenings

Acknowledgement of family successes

- Birthdays in bulletin

Work load – family before Rotary

COMMUNITY

Assistance to disadvantaged

Assistance to potential leaders

Know community needs

- Churches
- Doctors
- Local council
- Club members

Signage at projects

Community volunteers

Potential members

AS A ROTARY CLUB,
WHAT DOES YOUR COMMUNITY
EXPECT OF YOU?

ROTARY DISTRICT

District Conference

District training

- District assembly
- Rotary Leadership Institute
- Other training

District committees

District projects

- Ryla, Rypen, YE, Science schools

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL

International projects

International Convention

Rotary Foundation

Vocational Training Teams

Ambassadorial Scholars

Overseas make-ups

Sister Clubs

SUMMARY

Get beyond your Club walls

Take members beyond club walls

|

There is a lot going on out there,
become part of it