The Object Rotary

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basic of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First

The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second

High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations ; and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third

The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his personal, business and community life

Fourth

The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional people united in the ideal of service.

Club Membership Director

Job Description

Club Membership Director

As the chair of your committee, you're responsible for ensuring your committee achieves committee and club goals.

- Responsibilities

- Before taking office, you have the following responsibilities:
 - Reviewing your committee's manual
 - Attending the district assembly
 - Reviewing your club's bylaws, which should contain information on your committee's purpose
- Working with the president-elect to recruit committee members based on their professional abilities and personal interests, and preparing them for the year
- Reviewing and establishing club long-range and annual goals with the president-elect using the Planning Guide for Effective Rotary Clubs
- Developing an action plan for your committee to achieve annual goals

Club Membership Director

During your year as committee chair, you have the following
responsibilities:

- Planning and conducting regular committee meetings and activities
- Holding members accountable for the responsibilities they've accepted
- Reporting committee activities and progress to the club president and board of directors and the full club
- Cooperating with the appropriate district committee on multi-club activities or initiatives
- Recognizing committee members' work and efforts
- Make sure all club projects have a membership component

Committee Members

-  Work with the president-elect to select committee members to fill vacancies and conduct planning meetings before the start of the year.
-  When feasible, committee members should be appointed to the same committee for three years for continuity. Committee members should know the socioeconomic conditions of the community.
-  Other important characteristics to consider include:
 -  • Profession related to service
 -  • International study or travel experience
 -  • Community volunteer experience

Club Membership Director

To prepare committee members:

-  Supply newer members with information on the committee and its activities.
-  Pair new committee members with more experienced ones.
-  Encourage networking with counterparts in other clubs (use the district directory).
-  Know the resources available to your committee.
-  Give members a list of district activities and meetings.

Club Membership Director

Selecting Club Committee Members & Setting Goals.

- Developing an effective team is one of the most important responsibilities of a club committee chair.
- Committee Chair Responsibilities.
 - Recruit members who have the skill, knowledge experience and desire to do the job.
 - Provide appropriate instruction and orientation.
 - Plan and conduct a productive meeting
 - Hold members accountable for tasks they have accepted
 - Inform the club president and other directors of progress
 - Recognize those who have served well.

Club Membership Director

Selecting Club Committee Members & Setting Goals.

Developing an effective team is one of the most important responsibilities of a club committee chair.

- Determine a Committee's Purpose.
- Review the club's bylaws
- Review the Clubs goals for the coming year.
- Meet with the Club's board and the President.
- Preparing and Motivating your team.

Planning Guide for Effective Rotary Clubs

The Planning Guide for Effective Rotary Clubs is a tool to help clubs assess their current state and establish goals for the coming year. It is based on the Club Leadership Plan. The strategies listed in this section are common ways clubs might choose to pursue membership goals. Clubs are encouraged to develop alternative strategies to achieve their membership goals when appropriate.

Of the employed people in 2119, NSW (Postal Areas), 6.2% worked in School Education. Other major industries of employment included Legal and Accounting Services 4.6%, Hospitals 4.3%, Computer System Design and Related Services 4.1% and Tertiary Education 3.7%.

Recruitment Action Plan

DO NOT ADVERTISE for new members?

This is a lazy approach and results in poor
selection

Identify the Classifications
that need to be filled

Results from the Classification Survey

Recruitment Action Plan

Qualified potential members are either

- Currently working in professional, proprietary, executive, or managerial positions or retired from such positions; or
- Community leaders who have demonstrated a commitment to service through personal involvement in community affairs; or
- Rotary Foundation alumni, as defined by the RI Board.

They must also

- Be able to meet the club's attendance and community project participation requirements
- Live or work within the club's area
- Fit into a classification that is not overrepresented in your club (exception: Rotary Foundation alumni).

Fit the Regional membership plan guidelines

Recruitment Action Plan

Retention Action Plan

Identify all members with less than 2 years membership

- Invite all of them to a Lounge Meeting at your home
- Conduct "This is Rotary"
- Have open discussion on current club programs

Work with Club Service on the Social program

- A strong social program enhances membership
- Visit other clubs

Encourage and get commitment for them to attend:

- The District Conference
- A District Seminar
- Do a Make up at a club while on holiday

Continue the Rotary Education Process

- Recommend one meeting a month to Rotary Education

Attend Rotary Leadership Institute

- 3 x Saturday Sessions at the District Office
