Policewomen to walk a different beat

Two off-duty policewomen will start a 357km trek from Martin Place in Sydney to Parliament House in Canberra from 3-12 March... a 10-day "Trek-4-Timor".

Rotarians Libby Bleakley and Teresa Beck (both Australian Federal Police members) are walking a different beat to raise funds for the Sentru Formasaun Ba Juventude (Learning Centre for Youth & Community) in Timor-Leste.

Tax-deductible donations can be made through the Rotary Club of Blackheath's website www.rotaryclubofblackheath.com.au by clicking on our emblem, or alternatively through the Sentru Formasaun Ba Juventude Facebook page.
