

Rotary District 5170 Avenues of Service Fact Sheet

When: Thursday, September 30, 2021 | 5 – 8pm | via Zoom
Saturday, October 2, 2021 | 11:30 – 3pm | Alameda Fair Grounds and via Zoom

Cost: $50 pp – Rotarians
$25 pp – Prospective Members
Free – Rotarian Project Fair Table (October 2)

What: “Zoomin Thursday”, September 30, features Best Practices including: Membership, Public Image, Foundation, and Avenues of Service

“Hybrid Saturday”, October 2, features project faire, luncheon, Major Donor recognitions and a keynote speaker, Linda Coble, the first CBS female anchor of Honolulu.

How to register:

Go to <https://rotarydistrict5170.org> and follow links. Online sign-ups for individuals, groups, or by downloading the sign-up sheet to register/pay as a club.

COVID Protocols:

Event at the Alameda Fair Grounds is outdoors. County, State and Federal protocols observed.

Top 10 reasons to attend:

1. Board members learn leadership tips from other clubs.
2. ‘Zooming Thursday’ connects Rotarians to Avenue of Service Chairs and District Leadership
3. Saturday Project Fair provides opportunities for partnering on projects.
4. Outdoor venue provides expansive spacing at Alameda Fairgrounds Amphitheater with all County and Federal safety guidelines observed.
5. Opportunity to sponsor a prospective Rotarian to attend the event AND enter into a drawing for a 3-night/4-day stay at Squaw Creek luxury resort for a minimum $50 donation ($2,000+ retail value)
6. Fellowship and fun with Rotarians and guests from the four-county region of Rotary District 5170.
7. The inspirational Linda Cobel – a woman of first: first woman club President for Rotary Club of Honolulu, first woman CBS Anchor for Honolulu, and first woman District Governor for District 5000.
8. Prospective Rotarians are introduced the World of Rotary.
9. Hawaiian specialty cocktails and music of the islands throughout the Saturday event.
10. The Rotary experience with FUN AND FELLOWSHIP while celebrating Service Above Self.

Opportunity Drawing:

Contribute a minimum of $50 to the Opportunity Drawing to help underwrite the discounted registration fee for Prospective members and win the chance of a 3-day/4-night stay at the 4 Star luxury condo in beautiful Squaw Creek Resort with a $2,000+ retail value!!!

Contact Information:

Rotary District 5170 website: www.rotarydistrict5170.org

Mailing address: Rotary District 5170, 2570 N. First Street, San Jose, CA 9513

Email: admin@rotarydistrict5170.org

Phone: 408.273.4577