Sponsor/Mentor Guidelines - given the unusual circumstances of dealing with shelter in place adjust the guidelines as needed to safely address the on-boarding process and new member inculturation.

- Shortly after new members's induction, meet with them away from club meeting and get to know them better.
- Encourage them to explore and join a committee that best suits their personal interests. Use the google doc committee link (found on Club Runner Home page Membership tab) to review all the avenues of service.
- Sit with them at club meetings (try different table each week) and introduce them to a variety of club members. If you cannot attend a meeting, arrange for another member to help welcome them.
- Attend club functions such as club socials, district events and visitations to other clubs. If you are unable to attend above events, arrange for another member.
- Review the annual calendar so they can see the opportunities for service, fellowship and fun.
- Encourage participation in club projects and fundraisers.
- Take time to answer their questions and review and discuss club and district activities.
- Periodically meet and review google doc Red Badge Check List progress.

Red Badge guidelines

- During the Red Badge phase of your membership, your Sponsor/Mentor, along with the Red Badge Team are available to you to answer questions and guide you through the Red Badge Check List.
- Communicate with your Mentor(s) regarding your Sunrise Rotary expectations – let your Sponsor and Mentor know what you want from your Rotary experience.
- Your Sponsor introduced you to the Club and will always be your first “friend” in Rotary. Your Mentor is present to help you form additional life-long friendships as you discover your passion for Service Above Self.

Measuring Success:

- Red Badger is making progress toward completion of the Red Badge Check List.
- Red Badger continues to participate in social events, club service and/or service project, and district events.
- Red Badger is active and engaged in Sunrise service opportunities.
- Red Badger continues to support The RF each year.
- Complete 6 month membership survey
