

Les Bevans Pacesetter Award

Rotarian in Vocational Service

Sponsored by University Hills

Jean Bedell
Boulder

This prestigious award was created in 1987 by the University Hills Club to recognize a Rotarian whose involvement has contributed significantly to Vocational Service in our community.

Jean Bedell from Boulder Rotary is this year's recipient.

University Hill recognizes Jean's long commitment to using her vocation as a medical nurse with a Masters in Gerontology to help the underserved of the world. Jean Bedell has volunteered for 2 to 3 months in India for over 30 years. She has taught in nursing colleges, and trained people from all levels and professions in conflict management techniques.

Jean is also a recipient of: the 2008 Rotary international Service Above Self Award and the 2013 Rotary International Global Service to Humanity Award

I can't tell you how proud I am personally to know this great Rotarian and I know you all feel the same! Thank you Jean Bedell, the world needs more of you!
