

Vocational Service Award

Project Promoting Vocational Service

Sponsored by Wells Fargo Banks

The Rotary Club of Denver

The annual Vocational service award is proudly sponsored by Wells Fargo Banks. It recognizes the club which has done the most to stimulate Vocational Service in its community and this year it is earned not given to, the Rotary Club of Denver.

The Denver Club is being honored for its support, participation, and Vocational Scholarship work for students attending the Career Educational Center magnet school. The CEC students pursue diverse areas of study and vocation in much needed technical fields.
