October 1995

• GEORGE W. RICE -Governor-District 7780-1995-1996 •

Act with Integrity, Serve with Love and Work for Peace

Governor's Monthly Message . . .

Dear District 7780 Rotarians,

Ginny and I have just completed the Official Visits to all 37 Rotary Clubs in our District, and we can't begin to express our appreciation for the warm hospitality extended to us at every club and the warm fellowship enjoyed with each Rotarian we had the opportunity to meet. From Newburyport to Rumford and from Fryeburg to Damariscotta, our District is enriched by the 2250 business and community leaders practicing SERVICE ABOVE SELF, who are proud to call themselves Rotarians.

We had the opportunity to hear about and to see the successes of your many efforts through service projects and fundraising, and to hear of your plans and dreams for this 1995-96 Rotary year and beyond. Good Luck to each of you with your ambitious goals for the year. I know we will all be successful in our endeavors.

October is VOCATIONAL SERVICE MONTH, and a great time to plan tours of Rotarians' businesses, creating an awareness of the ways we serve society through our vocations. It is a great time to emphasize the importance of utilizing

The Four Way Test to ensure that the things we say and do encourage and foster high ethical standards in our businesses and professions. Our vocation is a vital part of our lives every month, but during October, let's focus on the importance of our vocation and its significance within Rotary.

We have discussed the benefits of the programs of Our Rotary Foundation during our visits, and the need to support our Foundation. As November approaches, we invite all Rotarians to participate in our Rotary Foundation Seminar on Saturday, November 18th, at the University of New England in Biddeford, ME. You will be investing a morning of your life, learning how your efforts and contributions can affect the lives of others in a distant land through Humanitarian Programs. Or maybe you will learn how your Rotary Club can impact the life of someone from your community through an Ambassadorial Scholarship, Grant for a University Teacher or Group Study Exchange. Several knowledgeable District 7780 Rotarians will give presentations and conduct group discussion sessions. Regional Rotary Foundation Coordinator and Rotary International Director Elect Bob Coultas, from Madison, N.J. will be our keynote speaker. I'm sure you will find him very informative and interesting. I look forward to seeing you at UNE on November 18th. We all will have the opportunity to learn more about the programs of Our Rotary Foundation, enabling us to better serve our clubs, our communities and our world as together we Act with Integrity, Serve with Love and Work for Peace.

Yours in Rotary,

Action Alert

November, Rotary Foundation month, is galloping toward us. Club Presidents, plan now to devote five minutes of each meeting to some aspect of our Foundation, whether it be Group Study Exchange, Health, Hunger and Humanity, Ambassadorial Scholarships, Paul Harris and Benefactor Awards, or Grants for International Service.

GREAT FOUNDATION IDEA! From its club resources, Portsmouth Rotary matches any $500 donation for a Paul Harris Award. Result? Many thousands of dollars for our Foundation and outstanding number of Paul Harris recipients credited to Portsmouth.

*District 7780 Club Capers and Other News*

- Clubs celebrating anniversaries this month are South Berwick for 67 years, Kittery for 8 years and Brunswick Coastal for 5 years.
- The drawings for the Early Bird Registration prizes (See page 7) will be held at the District Foundation Seminar on November 18th. Get your reservations in NOW to be eligible.
- The Exeter Club will be having a Business Attire Fashion show on November 2nd as a fundraiser.
- The Sanford-Springvale Club has adopted Edison School. Plans are being made for Rotarians to spend some time reading to the kids. Remember the ultimate gift to youth is TIME.
- Sanford-Springvale also netted $3400 selling chickens at the Acton Fair for their scholarship fund. 570 1/2 chickens were sold. What happened to the other half? Did someone get hungry?
- Portland Rotary responded to our interest in oldest, etc. members. Rotarian David Moody will be 91 on December 15, 1995 is a PP and still very active in club affairs. David also has 33 years of perfect attendance. Keep up the good work, Dave!
- Charlie Redfern joined Rotary in 1936 is also a PP and has 43 years of PA. Way To Go, Charlie!
- On the ladies side of things. Roxanne Cole has had PA since she joined in April of 1991. The lady being in the club the longest is Judy Cavallero who joined the club on Oct. 20, 1987. Nan Sawyer is 69 years old and is still very active in Rotary and at her job working for Mark!
- The Westbrook-Gorham club has decided to participate in "New Eyes for the Needy", a project to recycle unneeded eyeglasses for the needy.
- Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Cotton have celebrated their 67th wedding anniversary. CONGRATULATIONS! That's longer than many of us have been alive! Charlie is a member of the Damariscotta-Newcastle club.
- Norm Rickard of the Bridgton club has challenged the Fryeburg club by promising to match $500. they, as a club donate to the Rotary Foundation.

CAN ANYONE MATCH THAT?

I'm attaching a speech, prepared by R.I., which someone in your club can deliver as a program during Rotary Foundation Month in November. The Foundation is a vital part of our Rotary lives. Let's inform our members about the breadth and scope of Rotary Foundation activities.

As Rotarians, we are all familiar with at least some of the Rotary Foundation's programs and goals. Still, we often need reminding of the extent to which the Foundation's many humanitarian and educational programs are helping build a better world. Since November has officially been designated as Foundation Month, I'd like to take a few minutes to review the Rotary Foundation in general, and the opportunities it provides to us as individual Rotarians. Like R.I., the Rotary Foundation touches a variety of people, youth, business people and professionals, communities in the development world, and individuals in every Rotary nation are closely involved in foundation projects.

We all know that because of Polioplus, millions of children will be spared a life crippled by Polio. Polioplus has brought attention and public support to humanitarian programs on a scale that we never imagined. But did you remember that Polioplus originated as part of the Foundation's 3-H Program? 3-H stands for health, hunger, and humanity. The 3-H Program provides funding for a series of large-scale, long-term projects. These range from tuberculosis prevention in the Philippines to vocational training in Portugal. Twenty-one new projects were approved in the past Rotary year alone. Since the 3-H Program started a decade ago, all projects have been designed to encourage self-help, rather than the quick fix. The parable about giving a man a fish or teaching him to fish is a guiding force behind all 3-H projects.

Similar to 3-H is the Special Grants Program. Here, the Foundation will match a club or district's financial contribution that is earmarked for a specific international project. These commonly include health care stations and equipment, sanitation facilities, educational activities, and agricultural programs. Special Grants is an ideal program for international service participation on the club or district level. Rotarians can discuss the project they wish to support and involve enough members to make a significant -- and remembered -- contribution. There is no shortage of available projects, either. Just contact the World Community Service section at Rotary's Evanston headquarters, and you'll receive a list of projects awaiting your support. Many, but not all, of these projects meet the Special Grants requirements.

Remember, that "Projects" aren't alone in awaiting your support -- there are people behind every one of them who need you, too. Supplying the Manpower for many 3-H and World Community service projects is the Rotary Volunteers Program. The Foundation defrays the travel expenses of Rotarians who volunteer their time and skills to work on humanitarian projects outside their communities. In the past decade, Rotary has sponsored more than 500 volunteers. As an individual Rotarian, you are the key player in the Volunteers Program. Vocation doesn't rule anyone out. Veterinarians, engineers, business people, store owners, craftsmen, and Rotarians from almost every walk of life have volunteered in a Foundation project somewhere in the world. Almost without exception, our volunteers say that they receive just as much -- or even more -- than they give. New friends in another country, the exploration of a different culture, and the satisfaction of directly contributing to the lives of others are all personal fulfillments that can come from being a volunteer. It's a special part of a special program.

The Rotary Foundation sponsors other international programs such as disaster relief and grants for university teachers. The Peace Forum, a year-old pilot program, explores the role that Rotary can play in the achievement of peace throughout the world.

One of the Foundation's best known programs, the Group Study Exchange (or G-S-E), will send a record 500 teams of professionals and business people abroad in this 1995-1996 Rotary year. G-S-E enables teams of business men and women of different countries to visit each other's homeland. For several weeks, they live in Rotarians' homes, develop friendships, experience different ways of life, and observe how their business is conducted in another country. The G-S-E program is an excellent way for Rotary clubs not only to further the development of young community leaders and international understanding, but also to increase Rotary's good will and good image in our own backyards. Through their districts, Rotary clubs can be involved in the selection of G-S-E team members from their area and host a G-S-E team from another land. G-S-E is obviously an enriching experience for team members. But the response from Rotarians who host a guest team is fantastic as well. In an exchange of cultures, viewpoints, and professionalism, everyone wins. In G-S-E, every Rotarian can be involved and be a winner.

Scholarships -- a favorite Foundation program -- is now in its forty-eighth year. The Rotary Foundation operations The Worlds' largest privately-sponsored International Scholarship Program. Last year, the scholarships program sent a record 1,165 students abroad. To date, nearly 27,000 scholars have studied under Foundation sponsorship. The nature of scholarships is changing. More scholars are requesting assignments in developing nations. Fields of study are changing, too. For many years, business and international relations dominated as favored majors. But today's scholar is likely to choose a subject related to science and health. Tropical hygiene, blood transfusion technology, and engineering are no longer out of the ordinary. The Foundation also sponsors competitive scholarships. This fall, the Foundation will send almost eighty young men and women abroad to study agricultural engineering, the Japanese language, and international relations.

Each Rotary club can submit to its district a student nominee for consideration as the district's scholarship designee. If you know a graduate or undergraduate student who would serve Rotary well both academically and as an Ambassador of good will, you again have an opportunity to serve the Foundation.

So the Rotary Foundation touches a variety of people. Youth, business people and professionals, communities in the developing world, and individuals in every Rotary nation work together toward positive goals through Foundation projects.

The backbone of the Rotary Foundation, however, is Rotarians such as us. Our support comes in many forms. Sometimes a Rotary Club donates equipment for a 3-H project, or leads the drive to fund a Special Grants Project. We volunteer to work at Foundation projects throughout the world. We serve as host counselors for Rotary scholars or help select G-S-E team members. The most common form of Rotarian support is financial. Some of you here today may be Paul Harris Fellows. This symbol recognizes your support of the Foundation. Any Rotarian who donates $1,000 or more may request Paul Harris recognition. And that donation is the life blood of the vital programs I've just discussed.

That $1,000 donation means a lot more than just the Foundation, too.

To the people of 29 provinces in Thailand, it means clean drinking water from 40 rainwater collection tanks made possible by a $1,000 gift;

To young men in Papua, New Guinea, it means a useful vocation, since $1,000 provides all the carpentry tools necessary to equip a trade school;

For 200 needy children in Mexico, $1,000 means sight from eyeglasses they desperately need -- but would not otherwise have;

To the wards of Boys' Home in Sri Lanka, it means nutrition, since $1,000 will plant two acres of bananas;

To children in Bolivia, it means a chance for a normal, healthy life since $1,000 will provide 6,500 immunizations against Polio.

All of these projects are necessary. None of them would exist without the support of individual Rotarians such as you. I ask your support as individuals, as members of a club, and as Rotarians united at the District level. We are the Rotary Foundation -- one of the leading educational and humanitarian organizations anywhere. I've spoken at length about what the Rotary Foundation has accomplished and what we aspire to achieve. All we need is the continued commitment of all of us to transform the Foundation's potential into reality.

Glen W. Kinross Named RI President Nominee for 1997-98

Glen W. Kinross of the Rotary Club of Hamilton in Brisbane, Queensland, Australia has been selected as president-nominee of R.I. for 1997-98. Currently a trustee of The Rotary Foundation, he was the unanimous choice of the nominating committee when it met at RI World Headquarters in Evanston on Monday, September 11th.

Kinross is joint proprietor of John Kinross & Company, Pty. Ltd., a furniture manufacturing company established by his family in 1911. He has served as chairman of the Australian Council of Furniture Manufacturers and is a life member and past president and councilor of the Queensland Guild of Furniture Manufacturers. During his business career, he has represented the furniture industry in negotiations with various levels of government.

A Rotarian since 1960, he was a member of the RI Board of Directors from 1982 to 1984, serving as RI vice president in 1983-84. He is a past president of the Rotary Club of Hamilton and has also served Rotary as district governor, information institute counselor, international assembly instructor, committee and consultative group member and chairmen.

Kinross will be the fourth RI president from "down under" following in the footsteps of Australians Angus Mitchell (1948-49), Clem Renouf (1978-79), and Royce Abbey (1988-89). He is one of 39,000 Rotarians who belong to 1,160 Rotary clubs in Australia.

If no Rotary club nominates an additional candidate by Dec. 1, Kinross will be elected president at the 1996 RI Convention in Calgary, Alberta, Canada and will take office July 1, 1997, succeeding Luis Giay of Argentina.

- The Hampton club has raised about $3800 from their 5K road race in which DG George participated. On a sad note Rotarian Dave Burbines' wife, Loris suffered a stroke not long after competing in the race. Let's all send along some get well wishes in care of Club President Ben Moore 107 Locke Rd, Hampton, N.H. 03842. You know what they say "Get well wishes get people feeling better quicker".
- The Hampton club also has an attendance contest and all club Rotarians who have 85% attendance or better during the first quarter are eligible to qualify for a free trip to the District Conference.
- Again, Hampton! One of the August meetings was dedicated to "Bring your Children to Rotary Day". 16 children attended the meeting. What a great way to expose children to the goodness of Rotary!
- The Newburyport club is looking for five members who are willing to become involved in the Paul Harris Fellowship Program. Each member would donate $200 a year for five years, and each year, someone from the group is selected to become a Paul Harris Fellow. Currently, Newburyport has 34 Paul Harris Fellows.
- President Linda Reichler of the Kittery club has announced a Friends Forever Program in conjunction with the Portsmouth Club and the YMCA. To raise money for the program, tickets are on sale for $10 for a trip to Ireland. They are also looking for used cars and boats to be reconditioned and sold. Take a tax deduction for a car or boat in N.H., but only for a boat in Maine.
- The Sanford-Springvale Rotary Club is selling 1996 calendars to benefit their Scholarship Fund. Weekly raffle drawings are for $100, and $50. The calendars are $21.00 pp. Please send a check to Tom Jagger, Secretary, P.O. Box 336, Springvale, Maine 04083.
- Thane Pearson of the Kittery Club has volunteered to be DG Nominee Marie Williams Conference Chairperson.
- The Portsmouth Club is volunteering members to work on the renovation of the Historic John Paul Jones House.
- Portland member Sam Giftos has been appointed the Zone Coordinator for RI's Family and Community Concerns Task Force. He is going to represent RI President Herb Brown at a District Conference in Florida.
- The deadline for the November DGNews is November 7th. FAX your news to 207-743-6358 or mail to P.O. Box 108, Paris, Maine 04271.

GSE Deadline

The applications for team leader and team members for the Group Study Exchange to Argentina in 1996 is fast approaching.

All applications must be in by October 31st and endorsed by the Club President prior to submission to the District Committee.

We Could Lend A Helping Hand !

Rotary Rose Bowl Parade Float

R.I. President Herb Brown urges all Rotarians to join in supporting the Rotary float for the Tournaments of Roses Parade held annually on New Year's Day.

The success of the Rotary float depends entirely upon the voluntary contributions of the Rotary clubs in the U.S. and Canada.

This year's float has received special permission from Charles Schulz, the creator of Peanuts, to incorporate his cartoon characters into the design. The float is titled "Kids, Laughter and Dreams". The 55 foot float features members of the Peanuts family skating in a flower filled wintery landscape. While Lucy skates blissfully among the pines and frosty white blooms dreaming of Olympic glory, Charlie Brown and Linus are barely able to remain upright as they exemplify the Rotary theme of "Lending A Helping Hand". With Snoopy at the ready to clear the ice in his pint size, flower bedecked

Zamboni, Linus hangs on to his blanket and hopes for a safe landing. Will he survive? Why ever not when Rotary is present and ready to lend a helping hand?

The Rotary Rose Parade Float Committee suggests donations of $1.50 per member. Please mail to

by Bobbi Bird

We all had a wonderful time at our Orientation Weekend in Bethel. MANY THANKS to Linda Varrill (couldn't have done it without you!) for making the arrangements for us to stay at the Sunday River Inn, our hosts were so very generous in allowing us to make ourselves at home in their Inn. If you plan any skiing this winter, you'll love this place! They let us have the entire building! We also want to thank, again, the Bethel Clubs' Bethel Express, without you, it would have been very difficult to transport everyone and all our gear up there.

This month we are going on the Haunted Hayride out in Gorham. Karen Duffy has made all the arrangements and with the help of the South Portland/Cape Elizabeth club we will go to dinner at Tortilla Flat, to the hayride and then back to Portland for a sleepover. Thanks to Art Coles we have been invited to spend the night at the Portland YMCA. (I don't know who is Art's contact, and I didn't ask!) Thank you very much Art for arranging this for the students. And Karen, who will be staying with the students at the Y!

Next month we will be going to the Portland Pirates game on November 4. We have reserved 30 tickets, according to the Civic Center people, these are "Ringside" seats. Cost is $8.00 a ticket, and are available to our students, their families, friends and any Rotarians who wish to join us. FMI call me at 207-865-0421. Reservations deadline is October 28th.

Let me introduce you all to Ivana Bruja Adaime Makac of Rio Negro, Argentina. (You'll be hearing alot about Argentina in the months to come as our 1996 GSE is to Argentina). Ivana is being hosted by the Ogunquit Club, and is staying with the Brassard family in Wells. The Brassards are quite familiar with our program, as their daughter, Alison, is currently an Outbound Student in the Netherlands.

Ivan has a brother Ivan, who is 22 and a student studying in Buenos Aires. Her mother, Susana is a teacher and her father Juan owns his own business which distributes sweets and articles for shops. Ivana likes art and music and I can tell you from experience that she is working very hard on improving her hand at shooting pool. Ivana will probably be helping our GSE Committee with the communicating to the Argentina district, as they do not speak English, and we don't speak much Spanish.

Welcome Ivana, from all District 7780 Rotarians.

Home Club Harvest Dinner Dance

The Rotary Club of the Oxford Hills and the Stephens Memorial Hospital Auxiliary are having their Annual Harvest Dinner Dance on November 18, 1995 at the Summit Hotel Grand Ballroom at Sunday River, ME.

A social hour will begin held from 6:00 to 7:30 PM followed by dinner from 7:30 to 9:00 and dancing from 9:00 to 1:00. Entertainment will be provided by the Blue Willow Band.

The dinner menu includes Pumpkin Bisque, Tossed Green Salad with a choice of Prime Rib of Beef, Lemon Mustard Chicken or Pasta Primavera. The dessert will be Chocolate Mousse with Berries and coffee, tea or decaf.

The cost for the dinner dance is $100.00 per couple and reservations can be made by calling Mary Alice Bancroft at 1-207-743-8270.

A special room rate is being offered for those attending the dance. Room reservations can be made by calling 1-800-543-2754.

October is Vocational Service Month

Dewaine Craig, District Chair

Even though this Avenue of Service is singled out for special consideration and individual club programming during the month of October, Vocational Service is a daily part of a Rotarians life.

From volume three of the Rotary Basic Library we find these words from Paul Harris's autobiography, My Road to Rotary "Each Rotarian is a connecting link between the idealism of Rotary and their trade or profession". Volume three continues by stating, "A person joins Rotary as a representative of their business or profession. Each club member has an obligation to represent their vocation to their fellow Rotarians; At the same time they are obligated to exemplify the Spirit of Rotary to others, particularly those associated with them in their daily work. These twin responsibilities form the foundation of Vocational Service".

If we were to couple this statement with the 24 word statement known as the 4 Way Test, each Rotarian has a springboard to self improvement in the work place and in your personal life.

Each of the Four Avenues of Service are important, individually they bring club members, the community and the world into perspective. Combined, the Four Avenues support the aims of Rotary. From the membership application to the dinner badge, from the classification talk to our daily professions we are about vocations. Our vocations are the glue that bind each Rotarian to another.
