AWARDS OFFICER

◀ To Page 1

Position Vacant

The objective of the Awards Officer and the Awards Committee is to ensure that Rotarians who make an outstanding contribution to the development of Rotary locally, nationally and internationally is recognised, appreciated and acknowledged within Rotary and the wider community. The Awards Officer will actively seek nominations not only for Rotary awards but also for higher community awards made under the Order of Australia and recognition advanced under the Australian of the Year schemes. These awards are highly competitive and must satisfy very strict criteria.

Further information on the Australian Honours systems is at <https://rotaryaustralianhonours.wordpress.com/>

The Awards Officer will maintain a register of all Awards and their selection criteria. The Awards Officer is responsible for managing the awards process each year such that nominations are sought in a timely manner, selection processes undertaken, and awardees identified one month prior to the District Changeover event.

Nominations for District Awards close on the 15th May each year.
