Dear Mr J & Ms A van Staden,

Who do you think of when you hear the word hero? Maybe you imagine Superman or Wonder Woman. Perhaps you think of someone a little less famous, like your fourth grade math teacher who believed in you when no one else would, or your mom, dad, brother, sister or spouse who works tirelessly to provide for your family.

Although Superman and Wonder Woman wear capes, not all heroes do. Most of the time, the heroes who mean the most to us aren't flashy at all. They are selfless, humble and often overlooked. This is why it is important that we intentionally set aside time to recognize and thank the heroes in our world; those who have sacrificed in countless ways for the good of others.

Heroes can be found around the world, but true to their selfless nature, they do not bring attention to themselves.

But we at Rotary 100, have seen your mask and cape - hidden behind the work clothes, the late nights and the early mornings. The rest of the world might not know how amazing you are, or how your selfless acts has impacted the truly desperate, but we know. And that is why we say:

Thank You for being who you are, a True Hero.

Naas Vorster
