

proximal to the Melusi clinic, and the sports ground is a driving distance away. The vaccination attendance was far more than any other pop-up session held before, due to the fact that this part of Melusi is generally far from most services and therefore took advantage of the opportunity presented by the occasion. From a community engagement perspective, this presented a sought-after opportunity to engage directly with community members apart from interacting through their leaders, a rare occasion in the context of the covid-19 lockdown.
