

A Joint Project of over 400 Rotary Districts worldwide

2023-25

PARTICIPANT - PART III

About Your RLI Program. The Rotary Leadership Institute (RLI) is a multi-district, grassroots leadership development program of member districts organized into regional divisions throughout the world. It was recommended by the R.I. Board of Directors and strongly endorsed by the Council on Legislation at three of their triennial meetings. RLI conducts a series of quality leadership development courses for potential club officers and all other club members, including those who have recently joined a Rotary Club. The courses emphasize both leadership skills and knowledge of Rotary around the world. All course sessions are completely interactive. RLI believes that leadership education has a positive impact on membership retention by creating enthusiasm and furthering engagement for Rotary. For more information on RLI, see our web site at www.rotaryleadershipinstitute.org.

The RLI Recommended Curriculum. RLI recommends a curriculum and provides outlines and faculty materials to all its divisions. The curriculum has been continually revised and upgraded over the years. Because of the growth of RLI, it is expected that major revisions will be recommended every four years in order to give divisions a sufficient opportunity to orient their faculty members and to provide translations where necessary. Important changes in Rotary are provided annually to all divisions. All curriculum materials and available translations are posted on the RLI materials web site at www.rlifiles.com.

The RLI Curriculum Committee. RLI has assembled an international committee of professional curriculum writers to review our material. The material is also reviewed by volunteers from Divisions from around the world and then translated. We welcome volunteers for any of these committees! Please contact newsletter@rotaryleadershipinstitute.org

2023-2025 RLI Curriculum Committee

This workbook edition has been modified and is presented for use in member districts of the Lone Star Division RLI and the Rocky Mountain Division RLI. The revision date is noted as a footer to each numbered page.

TACTICS	FIRST YEAR GOALS

We can expand our club's capacity for doing good by welcoming and engaging people of action with a variety of experiences, cultures, and perspectives.
TACTICS	FIRST YEAR GOALS

Strategy #3: Increase Participant Engagement

We can meet our members’ diverse needs and keep them engaged while helping them with their personal and professional goals. Active and intentional member engagement will make our clubs stronger and assist us in creating meaningful relationships.

TACTICS	FIRST YEAR GOALS

Strategy #4: Increase Our Ability to Adapt

New projects, new clubs and new perspectives will maintain our connections and ability to make a difference.

TACTICS	FIRST YEAR GOALS

Below are some suggested activities that clubs could do to follow through with the four Strategies associated with Rotary's Action Plan.

Match each activity to ONE of the four Strategies in the Rotary Action Plan.

Which one(s) might best be suited to your club's needs and aspirations at this time ... or ... which one(s) of these best match your club's vision.

If applicable, modify one of these suggested activities to match your club's needs and aspirations and link it to one of the four strategies.

Identify the main issues/concerns/needs in your local community

Review your club's use (or lack of such) of emerging technologies

Survey your members to see what is important to them in a club experience

Budget for new ideas and initiatives that might help your club to be more responsive to the local community.

Use the Rotary Learning Centre courses as part of a regular Rotary Club meeting

Use social media to tell the community what your club does

Apply for a District or Global grant to support a project

Review club activities to determine which ones can be streamlined or eliminated in order to free up time for impactful activities

Survey your community with the intent of establishing a new club using one of the flexible models available.

Make succession planning in your club a part of the annual processes.

Strategic Planning Guide (SWOT)

This guide will help you set long-term priorities and goals, all of which will support your club's vision. It's designed for Rotary clubs, but districts can use it too. As you prepare a strategic plan, consider these tips:

- Build a team of past, present, and incoming club leaders to oversee the plan's development and use.
- Ask an unbiased facilitator to run strategic planning meetings.
- Include a variety of perspectives by involving a diverse range of club members.
- See how your club's goals reflect those of your district and Rotary's strategic plan.

Strategic Planning Worksheet

1. Where are you now?

List the opportunities and challenges facing your community.

When checking your club's current state, use Rotary Club Central, Rotary Club Health Check, Membership Assessment Tools, and your region's version of Be A Vibrant Club to see what your club is doing well and what it could improve.

Club Strengths	Club Weaknesses
Opportunities for membership development in the community (new businesses, growing population)	Challenges facing the community (such as economic decline, competing services)

2. Where do you want to be?

List five to 10 characteristics that you would like your club to have three to five years from now.

Next, prepare a one-sentence vision statement. Revise it with the team as needed, then see whether club members support it. (Include something that will distinguish your club from other service groups in your community — e.g., “Our vision is to be the most internationally diverse service club in our community,” or “Our vision is to be the service club most supportive of youths in our community.”)

3. How do you get there?

- Set strategic priorities that will help your club achieve its vision, considering:
 - The club’s strengths and weaknesses
 - The goals of the R.I. Strategic Plan, those of your district, and those of your regional membership
 - Programs and missions of Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation
 - Your community’s opportunities and challenges
 - Members’ opinions
 - Achievability in three to five years
- Get the team to choose the most important strategic priorities — those that will have the biggest impact as your club works toward its vision.
- Identify yearly goals that support each of the top strategic priorities.
- List the tasks and activities, timeline, resources, and people necessary to meet the yearly goals under each of the strategic priorities.
- Use Rotary Club Central to help set goals and track achievements.

Strategic priority 1: _____

Annual Goals	Tasks/Activities	Timeline	Resources Needed	Member Assigned

Strategic priority 2: _____

Annual Goals	Tasks/Activities	Timeline	Resources Needed	Member Assigned

Strategic priority 3: _____

Annual Goals	Tasks/Activities	Timeline	Resources Needed	Member Assigned

4. How are you doing?

- Have your strategic planning team regularly monitor progress on reaching its goals and suggest plan updates as needed.
- Review your strategic plan, including its vision statement and priorities, each year with club members to see if they would like any revisions.
- Make sure club decisions support the goals of the plan, and discuss observations with the strategic planning team.
- Allot enough resources to achieve the plan.
- Repeat the strategic planning steps every three to five years to produce a new plan or keep the current one.

Rotary Club Self-Evaluation of Performance and Operations

This form is to conduct a self-evaluation and review of your club’s current performance and operations. It is NOT intended to “grade” your club, but rather provide a mechanism to discover the strengths of your club and identify areas that might be improved. Many questions will require a degree of reasonable appraisal. Please be guided by the Four Way Test and your best judgment in answering the questions. Divisions and districts are free to adopt and utilize the evaluation.

35 DK's = 105 to 175 points—Critical, you need to learn more about your club.

36 or more = Unacceptable—Unless you're a new member, you need to seriously learn more about the functioning of your club.

This is a non-weighted, unscientific analysis of your club and the results should only be used to identify areas that either you or the club might be lacking. It should not be taken as a negative reflection on the activities of the club or its Rotarians.

Summary

- International Service is part of the Object of Rotary
- There are many ways to create and fund international service projects

What is an International Service Project?

International Service Projects aim to:

1. Improve the quality of life of those in need through international service
2. Encourage cooperation between clubs and districts in different countries as they carry out international service projects
3. Provide an effective framework for exchanging information regarding project needs and assistance
4. Increase awareness among Rotarians of International development and cultural issues as well as the importance of implementing projects that help people help themselves
5. Assist participants in related programs of Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation
6. Communicate successful project experiences to other Rotarians
7. Foster international understanding, goodwill, and peace

Global Grant projects must adhere to specific criteria.
Visit the Grant Center at www.rotary.org.

Getting Involved

Rotary clubs that get involved find that a project's benefits extend far beyond the communities where their projects take place. Clubs have the opportunity to (1) Undertake more ambitious projects (2) Empower all participants in service efforts (3) Develop closer ties with Rotarians abroad (4) Further international understanding and goodwill AND, (5) Address global concerns

Many clubs start participating in International Service Projects because of informal contacts among Rotarians. Rotary Showcase is another way Rotarians can get involved in International Service. This searchable database lists hundreds of club and district community service projects worldwide in need of funding, volunteers, donated goods, and partners for Rotary Foundation Grants. It also offers a list of model projects, which can be a source of best practices.

Session Topics

- 1) What is the difference between Publicity, Public Relations, and Public Image?
- 2) Is there something about your club that the community recognizes?
- 3) Does your club have a PE Chair? Do you need one? Why? What do they do?
- 4) Who is the club's target Audience?

Summary:

- The club's public image can affect the credibility of the club, as well as your membership.
- Publicity is more than just press releases.
- A wealth of resources are available from Rotary International.

Public Image Case Study

Read the following case study and create a public image plan for the Rotary Club of Royal Gardens. Focus on three or four ways the club can reach out to the media and to the community directly to share its projects. Consider the questions below as you develop your plan.

The Rotary Club of Royal Gardens is located in a prosperous town of 35,000. The club's 40 members are a cross-section of the Royal Gardens professional community. The club's weekly program attracts prominent local speakers, and members are enthusiastic about their work in the community.

The club provides support for the community's growing elderly population. Through this ongoing project, club members prepare and deliver meals, arrange for home repairs, and visit residents who have been admitted to the hospital.

The club also helps to identify candidates for a Rotary Peace Fellowship. One scholar is studying the effects of global warming on ocean water levels and corresponds regularly with the club to inform members of her experiences.

Despite all their good works in the community, a survey indicated that few people in the community are aware of the club's efforts. Some respondents reported they perceive Rotary as a social club for older men. This image of the club has made it difficult to attract new, younger, and diverse participants.

1. Verbalize the problem.
2. What aspects of the club's current activities might interest the media?
3. Which type of media is most appropriate for each aspect? Why?
4. How might regular club programs be of interest to local media?
5. Other than Public Image, what other committees should be involved in solving this problem?
6. Many people would say this problem is in the hands of ALL members of the club. What could EVERY club member do to solve the problem? How can the Public Image Committee help in this regard?

Public Relations Writing

The ability to write easily, logically, and succinctly is essential for public relations. The object of most PR writing is to grab the reader's attention, convey information quickly, and invite the media to cover your story.

Inverted pyramid. Most press releases and other written communications for the media use an inverted-pyramid style, with the most important and relevant information at the top, followed by gradually less important information. The headline and the first sentence are the two most important parts of a press release. Make sure they're compelling enough to draw in the editor or reporter.

The five Ws. Include the five Ws in your first paragraph, ideally in the first sentence:

- Who? The main focus of your story; a person or group at the center of the story
- What? The event or project with which your club is involved
- Where? The location of the event, including a street address
- When? The time, day, and date of an event, or the time period involved for a person or project
- Why? The reason the event, person, or project is significant to the general public

In subsequent paragraphs, provide details about the event or project, or describe how the person or group achieved something extraordinary.

Beyond the press release. Rotarians can communicate stories to the media in many other ways, such as:

- Media alerts. Time-crunched newsrooms appreciate a media alert, a more condensed version of a press release. Ideal for upcoming events or reminders, just answer the five Ws in bullet format, and send the alert to media contacts.
- Letters to the editor. The editorial page is one of the most-read sections of the newspaper, and a letter can reach many people. Use the templates from RI to get started.
- Op-eds. An op-ed is an opinion piece written by an individual who isn't on the newspaper's staff. Before writing an op-ed for your paper, learn what topics are of interest to your community.
- Media kits. Prepare a special folder that holds general information about Rotary and your club as well as materials tailored to the event.
- Fact sheets. Fact sheets provide details about Rotary programs to ensure that journalists have accurate background information.

ROTARY'S VISION STATEMENT

TOGETHER WE SEE A WORLD
PEOPLE UNITE AND TAKE ACTION
WHERE CREATE LASTING
CHANGE ACROSS THE GLOBE
IN OUR COMMUNITIES AND IN OURSELVES

As we stand on the cusp of eliminating polio, we find ourselves poised for our next challenge. The time is right to move toward realizing a new vision that brings more people together, increases our impact, and creates lasting change around the world.

To achieve the vision of Rotary International and The Rotary Foundation, we have set four priorities that will direct our work over the next five years.

INCREASE OUR IMPACT

- Eradicate polio and leverage the legacy
- Focus our programs and offerings
- Improve our ability to achieve and measure impact

EXPAND OUR REACH

- Grow and diversify our membership and participation
- Create new channels into Rotary
- Increase Rotary's openness and appeal

ENHANCE PARTICIPANT ENGAGEMENT

- Support Clubs to better engage their members
- Develop a participant-centered approach to deliver value
- Offer new opportunities for personal and professional connection

INCREASE OUR ABILITY TO ADAPT

ROTARY'S CORE VALUES

The world today is not the same as it was when Rotary was founded in 1905. Demographics have shifted, the pace of change has accelerated, and technology has created new opportunities for connection and service. What hasn't changed is a need for the values that define Rotary:

FELLOWSHIP
LEADERSHIP

By honoring our past and embracing our future, we can evolve and keep Rotary not only relevant. but thriving.

Guiding Principles of Rotary

Guiding principles

These principles have been developed over the years to provide Rotarians with a strong, common purpose and direction. They serve as a foundation for our relationships with each other and the action we take in the world.

Object of Rotary

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations; and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;
- THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;
- FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

The Four-Way Test

The Four-Way Test is a nonpartisan and nonsectarian ethical guide for Rotarians to use for their personal and professional relationships. The test has been translated into more than 100 languages, and Rotarians recite it at club meetings:

Of the things we think, say or do:

Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Avenues of Service

We channel our commitment to service at home and abroad through five Avenues of Service, which are the foundation of club activity.

- Club Service focuses on making clubs strong. A thriving club is anchored by strong relationships and an active membership development plan.
- Vocational Service calls on every Rotarian to work with integrity and contribute their expertise to the problems and needs of society. Learn more in An Introduction to Vocational Service and the Code of Conduct.
- Community Service encourages every Rotarian to find ways to improve the quality of life for people in their communities and to serve the public interest. Learn more in Communities in Action: A Guide to Effective Projects.

- International Service exemplifies our global reach in promoting peace and understanding. We support this service avenue by sponsoring or volunteering on international projects, seeking partners abroad, and more.
- Youth Service recognizes the importance of empowering youth and young professionals through leadership development programs such as Rotaract, Interact, Rotary Youth Leadership Awards, and Rotary Youth Exchange.

IDEAS TO PERK UP CLUB MEETINGS AND EVENTS

Hold a speed networking event within the club to help members build relationships

Put aside one scheduled meeting per month to do service in the community

Meeting in small groups on a regular basis (similar to the first meetings of Rotary) with a focus on one of the following – Rotary Learning, getting to know one another, committee planning....

Vary the format of club meetings. There are numerous ways in which this can be accomplished including:

- Have family members run a meeting;
- Invite someone from another club to speak to your club about how they have successfully employed different meeting formats
- Link with Rotaractors and Interactors to conduct a mutually-planned meeting
- Invite “lost members” to a meeting
- Invite back all past-presidents who have left the club (for whatever reason)
- Meet at a different time or location
- Have a Vocational minute (or five minutes) once a month
- Have a Foundation minute once a month
- Have members attend another local club’s meeting instead of the regularly scheduled meeting
- Meet at a local business once or twice a year
- Have a “greeter” to meet all members and guests upon arrival
- Invite all local organizations who have benefitted from the club’s activities to attend a “celebration” meeting, once a year.

How Expectations Might Differ

Traditionalists

Born before the Baby Boom (before 1946)

- Silent Generation ... Veterans... some “survivors”
- Appreciate patriotism, teamwork
- Do “more with less”
- More formal dress and expectations of this from others
- Arrive early at meetings
- Assist with the “setup” where appropriate
- Expect a formal (and often written) agenda for the meeting

Baby Boomers Born between 1946 – 1964

- Economically and politically influential in the 2020’s and therefore enjoy products and services that make life easier
- Confident, self-assured
- Less formal attire for meetings
- Quite adaptive in terms of meeting times – not hindered by long meetings
- Expect a meeting with lots of visual stimulus (e.g. Powerpoint presentations)
- Strong work ethic carries over to club progress and projects

Generation X

Born 1965 – 1976

- More concerned about “balance” between work, volunteerism, family
- Structured time for meetings to accommodate the balance ... if meeting or project is supposed to take X amount of time, Gen X’rs want to leave at that time.
- Resourceful and independent thinkers based on having to deal with many economic challenges; often can seem rebellious
- Can be less tolerant of traditionalists in club meetings
- Technological pioneers whose skills and adaptability are there if the club can manage them.

Millennials

Born 1977 – 1997

- Technologically savvy and have a positive attitude towards tech-based activities
- Well educated and focus on large societal needs (as opposed to individual needs.
- Females outperform males for the first time
- Want to know the purpose of the meeting – not just a meeting because there has always been a meeting at this time.
- Willing and able to work collaboratively and expect this of others.

Generation Z

Born After 1997

- The “smartphone generation.
- Just now getting into Rotary – but are active in Rotaract
- Diversity is a key element in their view ...
- Want flexibility in the workplace ... and for Rotary meetings
- Love to travel
- Money driven ... and save money
- Good at setting boundaries – for work, for volunteerism.

Expectation & Delivery Exercise

Considering one group of the following in relation to your club, complete the table, using specific examples:
 1. Current members; 2. Potential members; 3. Community; 4. Businesses; 5. Youth; 6. RI Organization; 7. Others?

List specific activities	Avenue of Service	Promise, Do, and Do Well	Promise, Do Poorly (minimal effort)	Promise, Set Expectations, But Don't Do	No Promise, No Expectations, Do	No Promise, No Expectations, Don't Do
