YOUR ROTARY LEGACY

Doing Good in the World
beyond your lifetime

Rotary's tomorrow depends on what we do today.

You can be an important part of the Foundation's next century of doing good in the world by including a gift to Rotary's Endowment in your estate plan.

Your gift will be carefully stewarded to provide earnings for the programs you know and love, year after year. The Foundation is known for its commitment to effective programs that make a lasting difference in people's lives. A gift from your estate will provide ongoing financial support, just like your annual contributions do today.

Join the many Rotarians and friends who have made a commitment to improving and enriching lives around the globe by leaving a personal legacy with The Rotary Foundation.

How to include the Foundation in your estate plan

You can include Rotary in your estate plan in many ways. Adding Rotary to a new or revised will or in a codicil is the most common form. Alternatively, you can make Rotary the beneficiary of a retirement plan or insurance policy. Whichever method works best for you, please remember to use the official legal name for your region:*

- ◆ The Rotary Foundation (Canada)
- ◆ Rotary Foundation (India)
- ◆ Public Interest Incorporated Foundation – Rotary Foundation Japan
- ◆ Rotary Foundation of the United Kingdom

Here are a few language examples for your estate adviser to consider:

- ◆ For a general gift of a certain percentage or portion of your estate: "I give [insert appropriate name from list above] one-fourth of my estate."
- ◆ For a gift of a specific asset: "I give 500 shares of XYZ stock to [insert appropriate name from list above]."
- ◆ For a contingent bequest, which takes effect only when certain conditions are met: "In the event my spouse does not survive me, I give to [insert appropriate name from list above] XYZ."
- ◆ For a residual bequest, which directs the disposition of all or a portion of whatever remains after all other required amounts are paid: "I give the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate to [insert appropriate name from list above]."

*If you do not reside in one of the four regions listed above, please leave your gift to: The Rotary Foundation of Rotary International.

How Rotary programs benefit

Once you have decided to support the Endowment, you can provide further direction on how available earnings are spent. A gift to Endowment-World Fund allows the Trustees to direct support where it is most needed around the world. This is the default for gifts that come to the Foundation undesignated. Alternatively, if you select Endowment-SHARE, your Rotary district can direct a portion of the spending along with a portion going to the World Fund. This functions like a perpetual annual fund gift. You may also support one or more of the six areas of focus. Please let us know your preference by making your selection on the response card.

Naming your fund

Foundation staff can work with you to personalize your legacy through a named fund within the Endowment. The separately identified fund can bear your name, your family's name, or the name of a loved one. Depending upon the amount, it may be possible to more-narrowly direct the use of the funds to specific programs or regions. The minimum amount to establish a named fund is US$25,000.

Let us recognize your generosity

Please let Rotary know when you have completed your estate plan so we may properly thank you.

Rotary is pleased to confer Benefactor status on those who commit any amount in their estate plan to the Endowment. Benefactors receive personalized certificates and a special insignia to wear with their Rotary pins.

Those who commit US$10,000 or more receive Bequest Society membership, which provides special Foundation updates, invitations to events, an engraved crystal, and an exclusive pin and/or pendant.
