01. Member election for additional members (Part VI, line 7a)

At a general district meeting, voting representatives from the clubs elect a nominating committee to select the governing body for the fourth year in the future. each year the chair of the nominating committee announces the schedule for nominations and requests that qualified candidates be submitted to the clubs. The nominating committee then selects the governing body. If no challenging candidate is put forth by the clubs within the time frame allotted, the selection of the nominating committee becomes the governing body for the third year into the future. This schedule allows time for training and orderly transition of the governing body.

02. Governing body decisions (Part VI, line 7b)

See response for Part Vi, Line 7A

Model United Nations is a program of the organization's Peace Committee. Rotary International has a long and proud association with the United Nations; Rotarians were involved in its charter and continue to be involved with the United Nations. We are partners together in eradicating polio worldwide.

The organization selects teams of two high school students and one advisor. The advisor can be a Rotarian, teacher or parent. Several months before the conference, the students will be assigned countries, given three modified United Nations resolutions to prepare, will undergo a debate, and learn what to expect.
