

Islands, Lighthouses and Castle Tour along the St. Lawrence River

Join us for an intimate narrated boat tour as we travel along the St. Lawrence Seaway Shipping Channel in the Heart of the 1000 Islands

This tour weaves among many of the islands, as our tour guide shares the history, mystery, legends and lore of the region. View Rock Island Lighthouse on Rock Island, Sunken Rock on Bush Island, Boldt Castle on Heart Island, magnificent million-dollar summer homes, millionaires row, and so much more.

This is a two-hour continuous tour and does not stop.

HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE

- St. Lawrence Seaway shipping channel
- Round Island
- Rock Island Lighthouse on Rock Island
- Thousand Island Park
- American Span of the 1000 Islands Bridge System
- Cherry Island & Millionaire's Row
- Devil's Oven – hiding place of Pirate Bill Johnston during the Patriot's War of 1837
- Hopewell Hall – summer home of George Boldt's daughter & granddaughter
- Boldt Castle on Heart Island
- Boldt Castle Yacht House
- Sunken Rock Lighthouse on Bush Island
- Millionaires Row

SIGN UP WHEN CHECKING IN AT CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

$27/person - cash or check to the district only

The boat is limited to 60 passengers and will be first come, first served

If there is enough interest and weather permits, a second tour could be scheduled for Sunday after conference concludes