AUBURN ROTARY NEWS

May was quite the busy month for Auburn Rotarians from preparing and serving breakfast to 200 kids for the Youth Homeless Experience, democrat congressional candidate Colleen Deacon being one of our guest speakers, hot dog hospitality weekend at Bass Pro Shops and raising monies for Operation Enduring Gratitude to raise money to send World War II and Korean War veterans to Washington DC for the Spring 2017. In addition, we honored Sharon Dilaj as our Rotarian of Excellence for 2015-16, and honored District Governor Henry MacDonald with a proclamation for the City of Auburn which designated May 24th as Henry MacDonald Day. The Auburn Rotary Club also commissioned a piece of artwork of Joan and Henry in recognition and appreciation of Service Above Self. And finally Auburn Rotarians participated in the Memorial Day downtown parade in Auburn.

FULTON SUNRISE MEMBER GETS MUDDY FOR GOOD CAUSE

The Daniel Barden Mudfest was held on April 30, 2016 in Deansboro, NY. This is the 4th year of the event that is in honor of Daniel Barden, one of the first graders taken in the Sandy Hook tragedy. The 5K mud run is challenged by hills, wooden obstacles, hay stack climbing, military crawls through muddy water and under barbed wire and nets, oh yeah, and more hills with ropes.. Fulton Sunrise member Mary Costigan took party this year and appears to have gotten in the spirit!
