Why Attend the District Conference?

This year’s “Camp Rotary” District Conference is just around the corner and the committee is in the final planning stages to put on a great family-friendly event.

In visiting clubs around the District I have been asked by Rotarians, both young and old, why they should go to the conference.

This made me realize two things: New members have no idea what a District Conference is; and “seasoned” members who “have been there, done that” do not realize that Rotary is ever-changing.

Rotary is bigger
Rotary, to most of our members, is understood within the confines of their weekly meetings and an occasionally service project.

To many members, Rotary is not “1.2 million members worldwide,” but only the members in their club.

Rotary friends
A District Conference is that place that gets Rotarians out of the confines of “just their club.” At the conference, they can learn more about Rotary and make new friends who have the same values and ethics. It is also a place where you can see friends who you have not seen in many years and catch up on old times.

Rotary recognition
The District Awards – although the not most important part of a Conference or the reason we work in our communities – allow clubs to show off the work they have done in the past year and receive recognition from their peers for a job well done.

I remember a number of years ago when my club was awarded the top club in the District. I felt so proud when we received that recognition from our peers, not only for myself but for my fellow club members who worked tirelessly for that honor.

The District Conference is that time to let other clubs in our District know what great things your club does in your community. You need to be a part of that.

Rotary Updates

Rotary International is ever-changing. Unless you go to an International Convention, it is very hard to realize and follow the constant changes in the organization.

Over the next several years, the International Convention will be located outside the United States. So the District Conference is the one place where you can catch up on Rotary around the world.

From the quality International level of speakers to our youth explaining how what we are doing is changing their lives, you can get the true feeling of what Rotary is doing to make a difference.

This year we are having specific sessions that highlight our Youth Programs – conducted not by Rotarians, but by the youth who have experienced them.

Rotary is family

I have always been a firm believer that Rotary should be an activity for the entire family.

Where better a place for us to show our families about serving their fellow man and making the lives of others just a little bit better. Our children learn by their experiences and the people they are around. For one weekend, we are letting our families see that helping others is not just a random occurrence, but an everyday happening.

Rotary is FUN!

Not only does a District Conference have all of the above, but you will have a great time doing it. Please join Chris and me at Camp Rotary, May 10–12 at the Hyatt Lake Tahoe in Incline Village, Nevada.

It is my promise that your family and you will not be disappointed.

District Conference is May 10 – 12

Oklahoma State Senator Brinkley to be keynote speaker

SACRAMENTO – District 5180 is proud to announce the keynote speaker for the District Conference: Oklahoma State Sen. Rick Brinkley (R – Dist. 34).

Senator Brinkley is a motivational speaker who believes in giving back to our communities in exchange for what we have taken.

Prior to assuming office in the Oklahoma State Senate in November, 2010, he served as the president and CEO of the Better Business Bureau of Eastern Oklahoma. His emphasis was on protecting consumers, especially the most vulnerable in society, and helping consumers to find businesses they could trust.

“When we highlight the bad players in the marketplace, good businesses can succeed,” he said on his Facebook page.

Senator Brinkley was recently named the Majority Whip of the Oklahoma State Senate, and currently serves as Vice Chairman of the Oklahoma State Finance Committee.

You will enjoy his wit and story telling. This is one every Rotarian should attend. Don’t miss out!

Peace Through Understanding Forum

By Lynette Andersen
District 5180 Peace Chair

The Laguna Sunrise Rotary Club hosted the first “Peace Through Understanding Forum” on March 7 at Laguna Creek High School. The keynote speaker was Father Thomas Bonacci, Executive Director of the Interfaith Peace Project.

Rotary International President, Sakuji Tanaka’s international theme this Rotary year is “Peace Through Service.” President Tanaka has urged all Rotary clubs and districts to organize club or district peace forums, community peace forums, or other peace activities. A number of Rotary clubs in District 5180 have conducted programs on peace, but the event at Laguna Creek High School, organized by Nancy Milton, an attorney/mediator and conflict coach, was, by far, the most ambitious.

In addition to Father Bonacci, who used his not-so-subtle sense of humor to explain how open and uncensored conversations about stereotypes, misunderstandings, and general knowledge of the many faith traditions in the world promote peace, we heard Emily Jones’ District 5180 Speech Contest speech. Emily was the winner of the speech contest at the “club level” and will represent Laguna Sunrise at the semi-finalist contest. The topic of the speech contest this year is “Peace Through Service.”

The peace forum also included an impressive panel of dignitaries from Elk Grove. Gary Davis, the Mayor of Elk Grove, Robert Lehner, Elk Grove Chief of Police, Steven R. Lapham, Assistant U.S. Attorney, specializing in prosecution of hate crimes, Dr. Steven Ladd, Superintendent of Elk Grove Unified School District, Orlando Fuentes, Chair of Elk Grove’s Multicultural Committee, and Matthew Banicki, Chair of Elk Grove’s Youth Commission, participated in a panel discussion, answering impromptu questions posed by members of the audience.

“Peace” is an abstract concept, often prone to rote or superficial platitudes. Refreshingly provocative, it was obvious that each of these men had made a personal commitment to promoting peace in their community. The panelists gave thoughtful responses to topics that ranged from gun control to respecting diversity; they talked about personal experiences that fostered their attitudes and values; each spoke of how they have implemented those values as policy-makers in Elk Grove.

DG Bob attended the peace forum, and, along with Rotarians and Interactors from Laguna Creek and Elk Grove High Schools, the audience included a group of students from Grant High School and their adult mentors from IAMPEACE, a peace mentorship program at Grant.

The example set by the Laguna Sunrise Rotary Club should be emulated in other communities throughout District 5180. Whether the issues in your community are bullying at school, cyber-bullying on the internet, gangs, or domestic violence, Rotary clubs throughout District 5180 should be encouraged to assemble similar panels and discuss the specific issues related to peace that affect their communities. After all, before we can hope to promote world peace, we must first facilitate peace in our own neighborhoods, homes, and hearts.
Buddy & Energizer Bunny visit the Families And Books Center

By Beth Wilcoxen
Rotary Club of Fair Oaks

After hanging out together for several weeks at the Fair Oaks Community Center and having front-row seats at the weekly meetings of the Rotary Club of Fair Oaks, Buddy and Energizer Bunny were so ENERGIZED with the excitement that the new Families And Books Center at the Fair Oaks Library would be opening soon. Buddy and Energizer Bunny were thrilled with the opportunity to visit the Library even before the opening celebration of the Families And Books Center (FAB).

As they entered the Library, the Rotarian friends were immediately drawn to the bright and varied colors of the freshly remodeled area especially planned for the young children and families in the Fair Oaks area. They found shelves full of cleaned and sorted books, and when they opened the new books added to the collections, they found a big sticker that had their special emblem, the Rotary logo, and even the name of The Rotary Club of Fair Oaks!

As Buddy and Energizer Bunny wandered through the rows of books and past the tables, they became more and more curious to get to the far side of the room. They could see displays on the walls, hear a grandma reading a book, and little fingers working away on the pre-reading toys. Wow, this is what they really wanted to see! As they rounded the corner, they both stopped in awe of all of the things to do. Children were sitting on the big caterpillar rug sharing the brightly colored beads and levers on big wires and boxes. A family found a reading game on the computer, and there was the little girl on the new sofa enjoying the book being read to her.

Well, this is where Buddy and Energizer Bunny wanted to be! They looked through the picture books on the shelves, peeked in all the bins full of books, then climbed up on the new little sofa together to share a book. They had just enough time to play with the toys before the Library closed, and as they were leaving, Buddy and Energizer Bunny decided had to come back to the Families And Books Center opening celebration to be able to each take home a new book from the Rotary Club of Fair Oaks. One more thing for sure, they would even check out a story to listen to on their trip together to Camp Rotary in May with all of their Rotarian friends.
Rancho Cordova Rotarians honor Firefighter of the Year

RANCHO CORDOVA – For over 30 years the Rancho Cordova Rotary Club has annually selected a Firefighter of the Year from the Sacramento Metro Fire District and this year’s honoree was Captain Kevin Snider. Snider has led the Fire Department Chaplaincy, both formally and informally for the past 18 years.

Presented with the honorary plaque at a recent lunchtime meeting of the Rancho Cordova Rotary Club, Snider was lauded for his extensive service to the public and his fellow firefighters. The citation accompanying the award read by Rotarian John Chapman noted that during his career Capt. Snider had responded to nearly 2000 requests for service throughout the county and the State of California. Incredibly, he has officiated at funerals, conducted hospital visits, and responded to requests for services for both the public as well as injured firefighters almost every time in his off-duty hours. He performed countless invocations, and presided over promotions and special ceremonies too numerous to mention.

Rotarian John Chapman reflected on Capt. Snider’s background, noting that he was born and raised in Sacramento, attending Mira Loma High School and now resides in Carmichael. At the presentation ceremony, Snider was accompanied by friend and fellow firefighter Battalion Chief Charles Jenkins, who praised Snider for his calm nerve and willingness to help those in need. Captain Snider’s dedication to duty and the ideals of the Metro Fire Department reflect credit upon himself and Metro Fire.
RANCHO CORDOVAN OF THE YEAR. The Rotary Club of Rancho Cordova has been a source of excellence for the City of Rancho Cordova. Rotarian Ross Johnson was named “Rancho Cordovan of the Year.” This is the third year in a row that the city has named a member of the Rotary Club of Rancho Cordova to this honor.

Rotarian Ross Johnson named ‘Rancho Cordovan of the Year’

RANCHO CORDOVA – On March 14, for the third year running, a member of the Rancho Cordova Rotary was named Rancho Cordovan of the Year by the Cordova Community Council in a big dinner event at Rancho Cordova City Hall. This year’s winner of the title was none other than Ross Johnson, a past president of the club, as well as the local chamber of commerce.

Cordova Mayor Linda Budge presented Johnson with the award, reflecting on his many years of service to the Cordova community, including stints on the board of directors of the community council, the arts commission, and the city’s building and land use committee. From the Rotary perspective, Ross founded the first Rotary Community Corps on the West Coast almost two years ago, and that organization is flourishing under his guidance and support. Ross was and still is directly active in many community service activities, including providing an ongoing source of baby food for the Cordova Food Locker, a local entity that provides nourishing meals for the poor in the community.

Surrounded by Rotary friends and family Ross spoke eloquently about his drive to improve life in Rancho Cordova for all of its residents, and he put his money where his mouth is when he undertook the organization of the labor and installation of Mather Lake Rotary Park a few years back in a multi-year project that tested the endurance of all of the volunteers that participated.

Preceding Ross with the singularly distinctive honor as top Rancho Cordovan, Neil Orchard was named for the honor in 2011 and last year Rotarian Conrade Mayer garnered the award, but Thursday night was all about Ross as his wife, Sandy and his children and grandchildren surrounded him as the room burst into applause.
LET’S PLAY BALL! Rotary Softball League seeks to expand

There are presently two combo teams comprising of the Rotary Clubs of Elk Grove and West Sacramento and the Rotary Clubs of East Sacramento, North Sacramento, and Arden Arcade. The Rotary Clubs of Sacramento, Roseville, and Point West also have teams.

What a great way to meet Rotarians in the District and have a good time.

Location Map
Since the PolioPlus program’s inception in 1985, more than two billion children have received oral polio vaccine. But Rotary’s work is not done: The disease has not yet been eradicated. Help support Rotary’s goal of a polio-free world.

By the time the world is certified polio-free, Rotary’s contributions to the global polio eradication effort will exceed US$1.2 billion. This constitutes nearly 14 percent of all contributions to the global budget through 2010 and represents approximately 66 percent of private sector contributions to the initiative. More recently, Rotary is working with the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation to help raise much needed funds to eradicate polio.
Rotary’s work

PolioPlus, the most ambitious program in Rotary's history, is the volunteer arm of the Global Polio Eradication Initiative. For more than 25 years, Rotary has led the private sector in the global effort to rid the world of this crippling disease.

Today, PolioPlus and its role in the initiative is recognized worldwide as a model of public-private cooperation in pursuit of a humanitarian goal.

- To date, Rotary has contributed more than US$1 billion.
- Rotary’s leadership, beginning in 1985, inspired the World Health Assembly to pass a resolution to eradicate polio, which paved the way for the formation of the Global Polio Eradication Initiative in 1988.
- Thousands of Rotarians around the world have volunteered during National Immunization Days to immunize children.
- The PolioPlus program helps Rotary fund operational costs, such as transportation, vaccine delivery, social mobilization, and training of health workers, and support surveillance activities.
- Rotarians work to encourage both donor and polio-affected governments to commit the political and financial resources needed to eradicate polio.

Volunteer Management, Fundraising & Social Media

A free seminar that reveals exactly how to get and keep those volunteers and raise funds for your charity

This workshop will help you initiate a new volunteer program or enhance the success of an existing one through the effective selection and placement of volunteers. It will stress the three R’s of volunteer management—recruiting, retaining and recognizing volunteers. This workshop will show you how to find and attract today’s new volunteers into your organization. It’s a new millennium and tomorrow’s volunteers will not respond to yesterday’s management thinking, but will be looking for an agency that respects their energy, passion and talents.

Learn how can use social media to enhance and accelerate community building to sustain volunteer engagement. Social media tools have tremendous potential for building a community of participating volunteers.

This program will help your volunteers & staff to get rid of the four major myths about raising money. They will learn just how much is too little to ask for and they will understand just why people give.

May 24, 2013, 9:00 a.m. - Noon
City of Elk Grove
City Council Chambers
8400 Laguna Palms Way
Elk Grove, CA 95758

Presenters-
Bill Wittich & Marty Martin
Spend the morning with two of the key figures in volunteer management and social media. They are both consultants to many of the national non-profits across the country. Bill is an author of eight books in the nonprofit leadership arena and Marty is a consultant in small business management emphasizing social media as a tool to entice businesses to reach their markets.

This seminar is for any organization, both non-profit and governmental, including schools, service clubs and churches that use the services of volunteers.

There is no charge to attend this seminar as it is being presented as a community service by the Rotary Club of Laguna Sunrise and The City of Elk Grove

To register contact bill at billwittich@comcast.net or call 916-601-2485
