the Rotary Club of*

Welcome to the exciting world of Rotary International

In Rotary Clubs around the world, men and women are making a difference to the quality of life of others by accepting the challenge of volunteer service through their local Rotary Club.

You have become a Rotarian because your peers believe you to be a worthy representative of your vocation and to possess qualities of leadership and character that will permit you to exemplify the true spirit of Rotary in your public, business, social and private life.

Your fellow members accept your assurance that you will serve diligently in your club, your vocation, your community and in the cause of international understanding, goodwill and peace.

The Community will know and judge Rotary International and this Rotary Club by the example of character and service you provide. We are confident that our club's spirit and service will be strengthened by your association and contribution.

Today, your fellow members are happy to welcome you to membership of this Rotary Club and urge you to embrace the international friendship of Rotarians.

Signed
