

SUGGESTED CLOTHING AND ITEMS TO BRING TO CAMP

Plains Baptist Camp is a fine summer camp facility in the Blanco Canyon near Floydada, TX. The days can be very warm and the evenings cool. Daytime highs rise to the 90s. Shorts and T-shirts are appropriate. You should bring at least one nice outfit such as jeans or slacks and a nice shirt that you might wear to a social event. Most attendees change two or three times a day because of swimming pool and the refreshing nature of clean outer clothing after a sweaty, active afternoon.

The agenda consists of morning gatherings, speakers, and presentations in the main meeting hall. Afternoons are filled with high adventure activities, and evenings include applied learning activities and some speakers again in the main meeting hall. Monday and Friday are mainly travel days so wear something comfortable, not tight or close fitting due to sitting down in a bus for couple of hours. You will not need to change clothing on those days. Housing consists of bunk houses with bunk beds which get fairly warm throughout the day and cool off at night. Each bunk room has its own bathroom/shower facilities.

- Pillow, sleeping bag or blanket and sheets for a single bed.
- Swimming suit
