

The conference program will commence on Friday afternoon through Sunday morning.
The following is an overview of just some of the incredible speakers.

Friday

Our theme is Building a Legacy. We will be hearing from speakers on the following topics:

1:45-4:45pm Grand Ballroom

- Rotary International President Elect, Ian Riseley – Connecting for Good
- Past Rotary International President and Trustee of TRF, Bill Boyd – Building a Legacy
- Past District Governor, Gowri Rajan – The Sri Lanka Human Heart Valve Bank
- Other presentations include “On to Chicago,” a Rotary Moment, Presentation of the DGs and Awards

5:30pm Reception in Grand Ballroom Foyer
Arch Klumph Society Reception in Presidential Suite, by invitation

6:30pm Grand Ballroom

- Dinner
- Presentation of the District Governor Class of 2017-2018
- Michael “Pinball” Clemons - “All Heart”
- Entertainment

Saturday

The theme is Connecting for Good, featuring these speakers:

8:30-11:45am Grand Ballroom

- Michael McQueen - Membership Guru on the importance of Relevance
- Honourary Chair, Rory McGuire – His life as Arch Klumph’s Grandson
- Katrina Perehudoff - Global Health through Rotary
- Michael Johnson and Xavier McElrath Bey – Restorative and Social Justice
- Other presentations include Foundation Awards, “On to Atlanta”, Centennial Concert

11:45-1:00 Lunch in Grand Ballroom

1:00-5:30 Explore Cleveland; Sari Fittings

5:30-6:30 Reception in Ambassador Room
Major Donor Reception on Grand Ballroom Balcony, by invitation

6:30-8:00 Grand Ballroom

- Dinner
- Illumination of Transit Tower with End Polio Now
- Foundation Awards
- Special Polio Presentation by Ramesh Ferris

Sunday

The theme is Be the Change (...it’s Gandhi’s birthday)

8:30-11:00am Grand Ballroom

- Peace Fellow, Laurie Smolenski – Be the Change
- Ambassadorial Scholar, Katrina Perehudoff, - Human Rights in Health Management
- Former Deputy Prime Minister of Kosovo, Mimosa Kusari – Rebuilding a Country
- Peace Fellow, Scott Lang – Political Officer, US Embassy, Pristina, Kosovo “Peace in Unlikely Places”
- Other presentations include Interfaith Service and Musical Interlude (special guest - violinist Aaron Blomme returns)

House of Friendship on 3rd Floor by Gold Room and Grand Ballroom from Thursday late afternoon until 1:30pm Saturday