Letter from the District Governor:

Our District Conference is NEXT you get your Foundation contributions WEEKEND!!!! Friday and Saturday April in by June. It means so much for future 5-6, in Scranton at the historic Lacka- district grant money. Every dollar wanna Station. It's not too late to sign counts.

up and get the registration discount. There is more information on the conference elsewhere in the newsletter; however, I wanted to make sure that everyone who's ever considered going to a conference, goes this year. There are no excuses. We've made it affordable. We made it centrally located. We've made it fun! Please sign up today.

We will be having a service event of putting together hygienic bags for the homeless. Many companies, clubs, and individuals have generously contributed supplies. I want to thank A.G. Dave Palmer for spearheading this worthwhile project. It will be a good opportunity for Rotarians to get more involved with community service, especially if they're having a hard time participating on the club level.

We're entering the final stretch for the fiscal year. Please make sure that Finally, it is everybody's job to try to attract new members. Our district is in danger of being merged with another district if our numbers get too low.

Time is running out. If there is somebody out there you think would make a good member, don't hesitate to ask them to a Rotary function. If you're too shy to do it, or are uncomfortable for any reason, give their name to another member and ask them to contact the prospective member. One of the nicest things anybody ever did for me was to ask me to join Rotary. Why wouldn't you want to pass that same kindness on to somebody else?

Thank you all for being Rotarians, and doing the good work you do.

District Governor Wraps Up Official Club Visits in Wyalusing

DG Roger Mattes made his last official visit among the 42 Rotary Clubs in District 7410 when he came to Wyalusing on Thursday, March 15, at its luncheon meeting at the Wyalusing Hotel. He talked about the goals he has established during this Rotary year and the hopes that they would continue under future District Governors.

He believes it is "vital for our future" to involve more youth, including high school and college programs. He made special mention of RYLA, which has had a tremendous impact by providing "amazing first experiences." He said that many who came to RYLA at Keystone College were hesitant at first but ended up at the end of their session complaining because they didn't want to go home. This has been true with students the Wyalusing Area Rotary Club has sent to RYLA, including Jesse Gowin, Miera Naugle and Jon Morrison.

More than half of the clubs in the district have Interact. Wyalusing is in the process of getting one started. Another option some clubs support is Rotaract, which is for college age people, ages 18-30, to develop leadership and professional skills along with

Roger Mattes (at far end of table right) talked about some of this continuing goals in his eighth month as District Governor at a luncheon meeting at the Wyalusing Hotel. fellowship and fun. He also mentioned ing care.

"New Generations," which is described as "the youngest generation in the family of Rotary offering "unique vocational or community service."

"We have so many untapped schools in our district," said Roger of the potential of these programs. He suggested clubs with interest in any of these youth programs reach out to Anne Sehne, who now coordinates district youth programs.

He pointed out that Rotary has no significant problem gaining new members. The problem is retention of existing members, including those who die, lose interest, move on to another community or, with so many elderly members, are unable to participate due to aging issues or being in nurs-

Another of his goals is to increase international service, "a wonderful thing that we do," pointing to the personal impact of his involvement with Operation Honduras. "I'm talking about boots on the ground." Then there is, of course, Rotary's effectiveness in eradicating polio. He said every club should have a Chairman or International Service.

"Never ever think one person can't make a difference," he said quoting one of his favorite sayings, "and never ever think you aren't that person."

He also made a last push to attend the District Conference in Scranton, April 5-6, inspiring at least two club members to register.

The Rotary Club of The Abingtons

Club's 90th Anniversary Takes the Cake

March 21, 2019 marked the 90th anniversary of the Rotary Club of the Abingtons. A historical talk was presented by Warren Watkins, an 50-year member and Past District Governor. President Ryan Campbell shared a cake and champagne with all those attending today's meeting. Pictured at the podium is Warren Watkins (above), and Campbell (right) admires the soon-to-be-devoured cake.

Local Agricultural Leader Talks About Value of Crop Exports

At a March meeting Abingtons Rotarians heard Keith Eckel, President of Eckel Farms in Newton Ransom, speak about the topics of raising hemp and international trade.

He stressed the importance of the relationship between agriculture and international trade since 35 percent of crops grown in the United States are exported.

Keith, a lifelong farmer, serves as an Emeritus Trustee of Pennsylvania State University is one of Pennsylvania's most respected farm leaders. His credentials include: former Board member and Chairman of Nationwide Mutual Insurance, former Board member of International Food and Agricultural Development and is a former President of the Pennsylvania Farm Bureau.

"Inspiring" Essay Contest Winners Honored

Destiny Schemitz, a Honesdale High School senior, wrote movingly about her grandparents to win the Honesdale Rotary's annual student essay contest. The theme this year was "Be the Inspiration" and content could focus on who inspired the writer, how the writer inspires others or how they might inspire others in the future.

"When my grandmother was barely a few years older than I am right now, she made the life changing decision to immigrate to the United States from Austria with her husband and her young daughter..." Destiny wrote about the trials her grandmother endured in a new country without knowing a word of English.

"I am able to find inspiration in the path that my grandparents took," Destiny penned. "When I need strength to continue on, I recall the trials that my relatives endured and I remind myself that I can overcome any obstacle in my way."

Two Other Writing Standouts

Two other students participated in the contest: Senior Mackenzie Meagher, who as the oldest of five girls, was a role model to her sisters:

"...my treatment of others has influenced how my sisters treat other people I try to see the good in everyone and make sure to focus on people's positive characteristics."

Junior Miranda Fritz wrote about her friend Tim who "makes a genuine effort to be supportive of all his friends and easily recognizes when someone may need encouraging words or even a simple smile."

All the essays were required to be original, under 600 words, grammatically sound, and... inspiring!

The winner was awarded $250 and entered in the Rotary District 7410 contest to be eligible for a $1,000 award.

The Rotary Club of Tunkhannock

Club Shares Wine Festival Profits With Library, Victims of Abuse

Every October the Tunkhannock Rotary hosts its Harvest & Wine Festival at Lazybrook Park. It is the Club's major fundraiser. During the first half of each calendar year, the Club presents checks, derived from the proceeds of the festival, to a variety of community organizations to help them fund their activities and programs for that calendar year.

At the March 14 Tunkhannock Rotary Luncheon at Purkey's Pink Apple, President Mike Markovitz presented a check for $10,000 to Rotarian Kristin Smith-Gary, Executive Director of the Tunkhannock Public Library.

Kristin then provided a brief update on the Library. In 2018, Rotary's donation helped fund the 1000 Books before Kindergarten (a preschool program where parents read 1000 books to their kids and they get prizes), as well as the Wall Street

Journal subscription, picture books, junior fiction and young adult books for the kids and summer and year-round programs for all ages of children. Also, a core of young adults has developed due to programs funded by Rotary's donation.

Donations from the community need to provide 52 percent of the Library operating budget for 2019. In 2018, approximately 50,000 people visited the library, 151,000 books were checked out, 4,500 used the computers and 5,500 people attended library programs.

At the March 28 Luncheon, Pres. Mike presented a check for $1,000 to the Victims Resource Center for all they do to help those who are victims of domestic violence, crime and disasters. Janet MacKay, Executive Director of the Victims Resource Center, accepted the check on behalf of the Center.

Helping Put Cancer Patients On “Road to Recovery”

Jennifer Washney, Program Manager, Missions Delivery, American Cancer Society was awarded a “Service Above Self” Grant from the Hazleton Rotary Club at a recent meeting

The Hazleton Rotary Club recently provided an $1,800 “Service Above Self Grant” to help pay for some of the costs involved with the American Cancer Society’s “Road to Recovery” program that provides rides for local cancer patients needing transportation to and/or from a cancer treatment appointment.

“Those who have registered as cancer patients with the American Cancer Society, can get some help with this through the ACS “Road to Recovery Program”. We have a wonderful group of volunteer drivers from Greater Hazleton who either drive their own vehicles or use one of two American Cancer Society cars available to them.

Club President Graduates from RLI

A recent graduate of the Rotary Leadership Institute (RLI) is Grant T. Palmer, President of the New Milford Area Rotary Club. On March 9, 2019, Grant and another member of the club attended the RLI day long session in Owego, NY, at the Owego Treadway Inn.

Hosted by the Rotary International District 7170 of New York, the RLI session involved approximately 50 other students from various Rotary Clubs throughout Pennsylvania and New York States. The Rotary Leadership Institute is a multi-district, grassroots leadership development program of member districts organized into regional divisions in various parts of the world. RLI is a recommended program of Rotary International. RLI seeks to provide quality education in Rotary knowledge and leadership skills to Rotarians interested in developing their Rotary participation and to those identified by Rotary Clubs as having a potential in club leadership. These educational opportunities teach skills that benefit the members in their lives and in their volunteer service.

Grant’s attendance qualified him as a graduate at Level 3. In the future in plans to attend the Graduate Level Course, which will cap the RLI curriculum. The New Milford Area Rotary Club meets on the first and third Thursdays of each month at 530 PM, at Green Gables Restaurant in New Milford, Pennsylvania. For more information, contact the club at newmilfordparotary@gmail.com

Not Just Another Auction: A Good Time Had by All

Meanwhile, the Not Just Another Auction was well attended and President Elect Jeff Gilbert said that everyone had a great time bidding on the many items available. He sends a special thank you to the Auction Committee and the community for all of their donations of goods and services. We are still in the process of figuring out final numbers but all profits go directly to fund projects and initiatives of the Rotary Club of the Stroudsburgs.

The monies raised provide local educational scholarships, supports local non-profit organizations, encourages youth leadership and funds local and international projects. As for the fun part, that is evident in the accompanying photos.

Fifth and sixth graders in San Pedro Sula are seeing the advantages of a dictionary project much like those conducted by Rotary Clubs in the United State. An Operation Honduras volunteer is asking clubs who have dictionary projects here to share their opinions on these projects.

District PDG from Honduras: Share Your Dictionary Stories

District 7410 Rotary Clubs that sponsor Dictionary projects ... we need your help!

Greetings from New Bern, North Carolina! As Edwin and I continue our Rotary life down here in warmer climes, we've gotten involved in another prototype project in San Pedro Sula, Honduras.

On last year's visit with the Operation Honduras team, we spoke with Christof Wittwer, director of El Refugio orphanage, and told him about the dictionary project in which many Rotary clubs are involved. He had never heard of it, and was intrigued. Since the orphanage has its own school of grades K-6, we suggested that we use the school as a test project to see if the faculty would make use of Spanish-language dictionaries in their classroom pedagogy.

As of last week, dictionaries were purchased and given out to the 5th and 6th graders. Faculty have already developed "Word of the Day," "Word Hunt," and "Word Families" activities that are being used by the students.

My request to you is: Would you reach out to the schools that are recipients of dictionaries and ask them to describe (in an email to me – bjbelon@gmail.com) how they use the dictionaries? I'll be happy to compile all ideas and novel activities and post them here at a later date.

Thanks in advance for your efforts to get some dictionary usage data. Edwin and I hope to see many of you at Governor Roger's District Conference in April.

Regards,
PDG Barbara Belón

Girls' Youth Cagers Say Thanks

They wore their blue shirts to all their games. Over the season, the girls improved their basketball skills and they also learned a lot of lessons that will serve them well in later life. Colleen then presented President Mike Markovitz with a Thank You plaque on behalf of the team.

Dear Friend,

The Rotary Club of Plymouth will be conducting its 19th Annual Golf Tournament on May 19th, 2019 at Rolling Pines Golf Course in Berwick. Much of the proceeds from last year's tournament supported our holiday efforts throughout the local community. From Santa Clause coming to town, to our Kids @ Kristmas shopping spree, to our holiday food pantry, our community has certainly prospered from your generosity in supporting our efforts. Chaperones escorted the children through the aisles for their favorite prizes and put a little "magic" into their holiday season. This year we are asking for your support again. All we do is impossible without the support of the local community and YOU! It is because of your contributions that our projects succeed.

You can sponsor a hole or donate a gift certificate prize. Either way, your donation helps us to make our tournament successful and keep people coming back year after year. We thank you in advance for making our tournament a success!
