News from District 7410

Letter from the District Governor

Fellow Rotarians of District 7410,

As we begin the 2015-16 Rotary year, each one of us has been given a directive by our incoming Rotary International President, K.R. "Ravi" Ravindran, to "Be a Gift to the World". This is a very personal theme because it makes us consider what skills and talents we possess that could be used within our clubs and in our collective efforts to make positive changes in our communities and world.

For this year, I'll be using my own talents to utilize the technological assets that Rotary has available to us to benefit our clubs Specifically, I plan to work with our clubs in a thoughtful process of looking at the match between our members' skill sets and whether or not the clubs are making the best use of them.

One of our continuing challenges this year will be membership. On the strength of last year's performance, I have set the 2015-16 membership goal to reach and exceed 1200. This we can do! Last year, Membership Chair, and now DGN Karin Breitlauch told us all at the annual Membership Seminar that engaging our members was the secret ingredient in retaining members. Clearly, someone who is engaged in doing good in the world benefits from that service in multiple ways. So, it should come as no surprise that the clubs with the higher numbers of service projects, fundraisers, and fellowship activities have the higher member retention rates.

Also last year, our District had a huge task to undertake in the form of bringing our net membership number above 1100. That was accomplished, and as of June  $30^{th}$ , RI recorded our District as having 1159 members — a 10.45% net gain, or 108 new members. Of the 20 districts in Zone 32, we were one of only three districts to report positive membership gains. HOW-EVER, we're still not out of the woods completely.

By July 1st, our membership numbers had dropped back down to 1115. Because June and December are now the months where our membership rolls are scrubbed and those who have moved, died, or resigned their memberships are deleted, this drop was expected. The good news is that several clubs have already reported that new member inductions are scheduled in the initial months of the 2015-16 Rotary year. Cont. on page 2

In order to give all our clubs the knowledge and ideas on how to continue to both build and retain our members, another hands-on seminar is planned for Saturday, October 17th at King's College, Wilkes-Barre. Please make plans now to send multiple members of your club to this free event — code name "Movies and a Makeover". Check the District website and monthly Governor's newsletter for registration details. If you want to see your club roster increase, then come to this seminar and walk out with actionable items that will help energize your club and make it attractive to perspective members.

If you're looking for an example of what can happen with good will, honest marketing, and effort, then look no further than our newly chartered Rotary Club of Wyalusing. This was a huge strategic "win" for our District. Our Tunkhannock Rotarians stepped up to the challenge, believing that a sustainable club could be grown in the Wyalusing area, and they were right.

The question for you and your club remains: What are you planning to do this year to let your community know that Rotary is no longer the best-kept secret among service organizations, but the premiere service organization in the world? With more willing hands and hearts, just think of what we could accomplish in our communities!

Yours in Rotary, Barbara B.

A Simple Way to make a Legacy Gift

Life insurance can be a great way to make a generous gift to charity. Many people have policies that are no longer needed to provide for loved ones. They may not think of these policies as assets available for charitable giving. What could be simpler than naming The Rotary Foundation as the beneficiary of an insurance policy? Encourage Rotarians you know to consider turning an unneeded policy into a gift that helps secure the future of The Rotary Foundation.

The ABCs of Insurance Gifts to Rotary

Like most charities, Rotary has a Gift Acceptance Policy that covers insurance gifts. Here is a summary for your quick and easy reference:

• Anyone can name The Rotary Foundation as the beneficiary of any life insurance policy, at any age, for any amount. The gift might not qualify for recognition or tax benefits, but the proceeds will ultimately support the many important activities of the Foundation, such as clean water or peace studies.

• To be recognized as a Benefactor or Bequest Society membership a person can name The Rotary Foundation as a primary beneficiary of an insurance policy other than a term life policy. Due to the short-term nature of term policies and the uncertainty of contingencies, Rotary does not provide Benefactor or Bequest Society recognition for term or contingent policies.

• Rotary can accept ownership of an insurance policy if The Rotary Foundation is named as sole beneficiary and the insured is within 15 years of actuarially calculated life expectancy. The Trustees set this policy based upon a cost-benefit analysis, taking into account the cost of administration and other reporting requirements. If approved and otherwise qualified, the donor is recognized with Major Donor recognition and may receive some tax benefits.

TRF does not actively promote the purchase of new insurance policies for the purpose of making a gift to Rotary, however, TRF staff are available anytime to discuss the donor's objectives.

Rotary Reads – District program

Looking for a small service project for your club for this summer? Then check out the flyer in this issue on the "Rotary Reads" program. Purchase a children's book for your local library or school - - have a Rotarian read the book at a community function or your local pool or other children's gathering spot - - and send a copy of the invoice for the book to DG Barbara for a $10 discount off your club's January dues. Simple as that! Your club ends up supporting youth, literacy, and visibly living Rotary's mission to do good in the world. As PDG Budd says, "that's what we do."

P.S. – Need a suggestion on what book to buy? Check with your local librarian, or look at the following two links to a piece of Revolutionary War history that you just might have missed:

Rotary Fellowships

The Board of Rotary International, at its June 2015 meeting in Brazil, has expanded membership eligibility in Rotary Fellowships to include family members of Rotarians (not just spouses) as well as anyone who has ever participated in a Rotary or Foundation program. This broader category includes Rotaractors as well as participants and alumni of all other Rotary and Foundation programs, past and present, including (but not limited to): Interact, Rotaract, Rotary Youth Exchange, Rotary Youth Leadership Awards (RYLA), Rotary Peace Fellowships, Global Grant Scholarships, Vocational training teams (members and leaders), District Grant scholarships, New Generations Service Exchange, Rotary Foundation awards to individuals in former TRF programs, such as: Ambassadorial Scholarships, Grants for University Teachers, Group Study Exchange, Rotary Volunteers.

Meet Your New Newsletter Editor

This is the first issue under District Governor Barbara Huffman de Belon and technically my first as Newsletter Editor. However, I am more of an observer from the sidelines for this inaugural issue. Credit Brenda Allen, who does so much on all fronts, for putting this together until I get access to the software I'll need to perform that job. I expect to be more hands-on for the September issue.

In the meantime, let me introduce myself as not only a new editor but as a new Rotarian with the Wyalusing Area Rotary Club, which held its Charter Night on July 10. Coverage of that event is in this issue.

I'm Wes Skillings and most of my adult working life has been as a newspaper editor/reporter with three publications, including the last on my résumé, my hometown newspaper, The Rocket-Courier. I was honored with numerous reporting and writing awards with the Pennsylvania Newspaper Association (Keystone Press Awards) over the years before retiring from duties there in 2011. You might say I am in semi-retirement as a freelance copywriter, which keeps me fairly busy as a writer-forhire providing web content, blogs and news releases for a variety of businesses and individuals. I recently published a book entitled "A Matter of Recovery," which you should find informative if you know someone coping with traumatic brain injury (TBI).

So feel free to direct articles, photos and information to wes@skillunlimited.com or to the District Rotary website, which will forward content to me.

"Rotary Reads" Project

Rotarians know how important basic literacy is to the world's children. That's why Basic Education and Literacy is one of Rotary's six areas of focus.

This summer, District 7410 will sponsor a "Rotary Reads" event throughout our service area. In conjunction with public and/or private libraries, Rotary clubs are asked to plan a simple service event, targeting pre-school through 4th graders. The idea is to set up a "reading spot", where on a designated day and time, a Rotarian will read a story to the children who attend.

For those clubs who purchase a new book for the library (i.e., the story that is read), the January district dues invoice (SAR) will reflect a $10 credit. All your club has to do is submit a copy of the purchase invoice and a photo of the event to District Governor-Elect Barbara at bjbelon@gmail.com and the credit will be processed.

This service project not only qualifies for the 2015-16 Presidential Citation (i.e. entering of goals on Rotary Club Central), but if a description of your club's plan for this event is entered on RI's "Rotary Showcase", then it also qualifies as one of the required goals under "Online Tool Adoption" in the Presidential Citation requirements.

There is plenty of opportunity for crafting this into a service project that your club can get behind and support. Whether you opt for a 1-day event or an extended, once-a-week reading session is entirely up to your club. Want to include some snacks for the kids? Great idea! Want to hold this not at the library but at the town pool? Even better! Get your club members involved in planning this event, and don't forget to include pre-publicity, and photos during the event. Event photos and short write-ups of your project will make great entries for our District's monthly e-zine.

Need additional information or have questions? Contact your Cluster's Assistant Governor or DG Barbara Belón at bjbelon@gmail.com

BASIC EDUCATION AND LITERACY

Rotary Foundation and the District's "Change the World" project for 2015-16

Changing the world...one penny at a time...

Daily, Rotarians are engaged in carrying out projects around the world that change lives and give people hope. But for many of us, the massive and very lifecrushing, real poverty in the world is just not in our personal reality. In fact, it can be downright difficult to think globally when so much is needed in our own communities. But, that's what we're called to do as Rotarians: to assist both locally and globally.

This year, District 7410 Rotary clubs are being asked to participate in a project where only their small change - - that annoying rattle in their pants pockets, or the coin that is found on the ground in the parking lot - - can be donated weekly at their club meetings. By themselves, these tiny coins are nearly meaningless, incapable of doing much. BUT, cumulatively, the effect can be world-changing! The results of this year-long project will be totaled and celebrated at the April 29-30, 2016 District Conference. See the accompanying flyer in this issue for complete details.

"Change the World" Project

Daily, Rotarians are engaged in carrying out projects around the world that change lives and give people hope. But for many of us, the massive and very life-crushing real poverty in the world is just not in our reality. In fact, it can be downright difficult, when so much is needed in our own communities, to think globally. But, that's what we're called to do as Rotarians: to assist both locally and globally.

This year, District 7410 Rotary clubs are being asked to participate in a project where only their small change - - that annoying rattle in your pocket, or the coin you find on the ground this week - - can be donated weekly at their club meetings. By themselves, these tiny coins are nearly meaningless - - incapable of doing much. BUT, cumulatively, the effect can be world-changing! This year-long project will probably amaze some and encourage others to make similar donations to our Rotary Foundation. At the 2016 District Conference, the total amount of change collected by our clubs will be reported, totaled and celebrated.

Directions: Clubs are asked to pass the jar weekly, collecting only small change. In mid-April, 2016, clubs will be asked to inform District Governor Barbara of the total amount collected up to that point. The total for all District clubs will be celebrated at the Friday night conference dinner.

No later than May 30th, 2016 clubs should send a check to The Rotary Foundation, representing the total amount of change collected. It is completely up to the clubs whether to have the donation credited in the club's name, or to submit the "long form", listing all club members, so that each member can receive credit for a portion of the donation.

If your club president didn't pick up a "Change the World" jar at PETS or the spring District Training Assembly, DG Barbara Belón will have some with her on her official club visits. Need additional information or have questions? Contact DG Barbara at bibelon@gmail.com.

THE ROTARY CLUB OF WYALUSING

District Rotarians Celebrate Wyalusing's New Charter

The newly formed Wyalusing Area Rotary Club was officially chartered at a dinner meeting held at the Tuscarora-Wayne Community Room on Wyalusing's Main Street on Friday evening, July 10. Along with Wyalusing Area Rotary Club members and their guests, the meeting was also attended by Rotary officials and members from throughout Northeast PA.

Rotarian Norm Kelly, Assistant District Governor and a member of the Tunkhannock Rotary Club, which sponsored the Wyalusing Rotary, served as master of ceremonies.

Prior to a buffet dinner catered by the Wyalusing Hotel, Past District Governor Paul Dr Paul Mucyznski of the Plains, PA Rotary Club presented a "Rotary Moment." in which among other things, he quoted John Lennon. "For the younger people here, ask your parents or your grandparents who this guy was," Mucyznski said. "You may say I'm a dreamer," Mucyznski continued quoting from Lennon's song Imagine "But I'm not the only one. I hope someday you join us and the world will live as one."

Following dinner, entertainment was provided by the Wyalusing Swing Choir and their performance drew repeated compliments by speakers throughout the evening.

In her remarks, Rotarian Carol Hemphill, Past District Governor and member of the North Pocono Rotary Club, said that seeing a new Rotary club formed had been a goal of hers over the past year. "I want to congratulate all of you for coming tonight and being a part of this celebration," Hemphill said. She mentioned how while driving through Wyalusing she pulled over near the town's "Welcome Sign" and noticed that of all the local civic clubs with banners on the sign, there wasn't one for Rotary. "So we are very happy in District 7410 to have a Rotary Club Wyalusing."

Hemphill noted that on May 22, Rotary International officially chartered the Wyalusing Club with 29 members. Hemphill next called each charter member of the Wyalusing Rotary to the front of the room where they were presented with a certificate of their charter membership.

Kelly also introduced a long list of current and former Rotary officials from throughout Northeast, PA.

The evening's featured speaker was Past District Governor, Toni McAndrew, who has an impressive record of service she has provided through Rotary, and also has served as President of the Pennsylvania State Nurse's Association. Explaining that she had nothing to do with the formation of the Wyalusing Rotary Club, McAndrew said "The only reason that I'm here tonight is because I'm a club Rotarian, just like you, sharing in the success of my fellow Rotarians." She also shared some historical observations about Wyalusing and tied that in to the history awaiting the newly chartered club.

McAndrew said the composition of Wyalusing's Rotary Club would change over the coming years and noted changes that have occurred since she became a Rotarian 26 years ago. "There were very few people then who had computers or smart phones, she said. "And there were very few women Rotarians when I joined," she said.

McAndrew went on to say that future projects involving the Wyalusing Rotary would expand and grow. "Your club may start with many local projects that will evolve into larger projects, involving and piggybacking with other clubs," she said. "Your membership will change, it will evolve and should evolve. Your charter members will become the 'oldies' in your club, and you should continually add new members who will bring new ideas and new resources to your club."

In conclusion, McAndrew urged her fellow Rotarians to have a sense of commitment to their club and to its goals. To serve as a role models in their community and to join with other Rotarians throughout the world in promoting world peace and understanding. "It is not why a person joins Rotary that is so important, it is why they stay that's important," McAndrew said.

McAndrew ended her remarks by asking all Rotarians to touch the Rotary pin on their lapels and turn it one full circle to remind them that they needed to be active participants in Rotary and not just spectators.
