

URGENT APPEAL
Cyclone PAM smashes
Vanuatu.
Desperation as many feared dead with great damage

Disaster Aid Australia is currently making contact with local government authorities and Rotary Clubs to assess what we can do quickly bring relief to the people of Vanuatu following this disaster.

With communications in disarray it will be some days before we can determine exactly the best way that we can help.

Because we have limited resources it is important that we target our response in the most effective way which will be directed to rebuilding the communities. Whilst we will be on the ground in Vanuatu at the earliest practical time we will work with local Rotary and other groups for the long term benefit of the people. We are in for the long haul.

We will keep you informed of events as they unfold.

So, will you please help us to provide vital help for our near neighbours?
