

Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

A Discussion Primer

As a global network that strives to build a world where people unite and take action to create lasting change, Rotary values diversity and celebrates the contributions of all backgrounds, regardless of their age, ethnicity, race, color, abilities, religion, socioeconomic status, culture, sex, sexual orientation, or gender identity.

From this vision statement and the newly released DEI Commitment Statement and Code of Conduct, Rotary is activating their commitment for positive change. Advancing DEI, as a cultural change in Rotary, is a critical part of us evolving as an organization and it's the right thing to do.

What comes to mind when you think of DEI? Do you feel it's an important? Do you feel it should be a priority for Rotary? Your perspectives are important. As a leader, you are ambassadors and champions of this work. We thank you in advance for stepping into this space. It means a lot. Below is a quick reference to what diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) means with respect to content and context.

Diversity

Includes all the ways in which people differ, encompassing the different characteristics that make one individual or group different from another.

Equity

The fair treatment, access, opportunity, and advancement for all people, while at the same time striving to identify and eliminate barriers that have prevented the full participation of some groups.

Inclusion

The act of creating environments in which any individual or group can be and feel welcomed, respected, supported, and valued to fully participate.

A key part of this work is awareness. To build awareness of your own unconscious bias, we encourage you to go to Project Implicit and take the quiz.. There are multiple quiz options, but ones related to skin tone or ethnicity are good reference points for potential unconscious bias. Click this link to take the quiz. Additionally, to help you navigate this space, here are some key resources to build your knowledge in the area of DEI and prepare you for your role as a DEI champion. To access the resources can be accessed by right clicking and chose "open hyper link".
