

Victorian State Youth Brass Band

ABOUT THE BAND

The Victorian State Youth Brass Band is the official state youth band of Victoria. It is managed under the auspices of the Victorian Bands' League and Skunkworks Community Limited.

The Band is open to young brass and percussion musicians up to the age of 25 and promotes and inspires young people to develop their musical talents to their fullest ability.

The goals of the band are to:

- Develop young musicians to the highest level;
- Provide an environment where young musicians can achieve their full potential;
- Provide opportunities to workshop with world class professional musicians;
- Provide performance opportunities of a high standard;
- Provide inspiration for a new generation of musicians;
- Have fun and create friendships that will last a lifetime.

PERFORMANCES & ACTIVITIES

The band undertakes many rehearsals, performances and activities throughout the year. Monthly rehearsals are held on a Sunday, with venues alternating between metro and regional centres.

Our activities include:

- Summer Music Camp - January
- Moomba - March
- Anzac Day - April
- Alpine Brass Festival - Bright, June
- Master Classes with MSO and SSO musicians
- Touring - September School Holidays
- VSYBB Annual Gala Concert - November
- many other public performances during the year
