Notes:

Background Checks and Criminal Record Checks

Background Checks and Criminal Record Checks Background checks play a critical part in any youth protection policy because they deter potential offenders and deny known offenders access to the program.

Although many offenders have no criminal record and diligently avoid being caught by law enforcement, background checks may dissuade them from volunteering in a Youth Program.

Many youth-serving organizations require a criminal background check for all adult volunteers who work with youth, even for programs that don't involve unsupervised access to youth.

Reference Checks

Reference Checks Simply requesting references in the application is not sufficient.

Contact each reference by phone or in person, and ask a standard set of questions, such as:

- How long have you known this individual?
- In what capacity?
- Do you think this person is well qualified to work with youth?
- Would you have any reservations about recommending this person to serve in a Rotary Youth Program?

Record the date of the interview and responses to each question, and keep this information with the volunteer's application.
