Rotary & UNICEF will focus on

Fighting Disease

Childhood disease in the Pacific

Despite improvements in immunisation rates, the poorest and hardest to reach children are being left behind.

- Pneumonia and diarrhoea remain the leading killers of children.
- In countries like Kiribati, nearly 1 in 18 children die before their fifth birthday.

- Weak health systems and limited capacity
- Complex environmental challenges
- Access is difficult

Immunisation rates across the Pacific are poor

Project overview

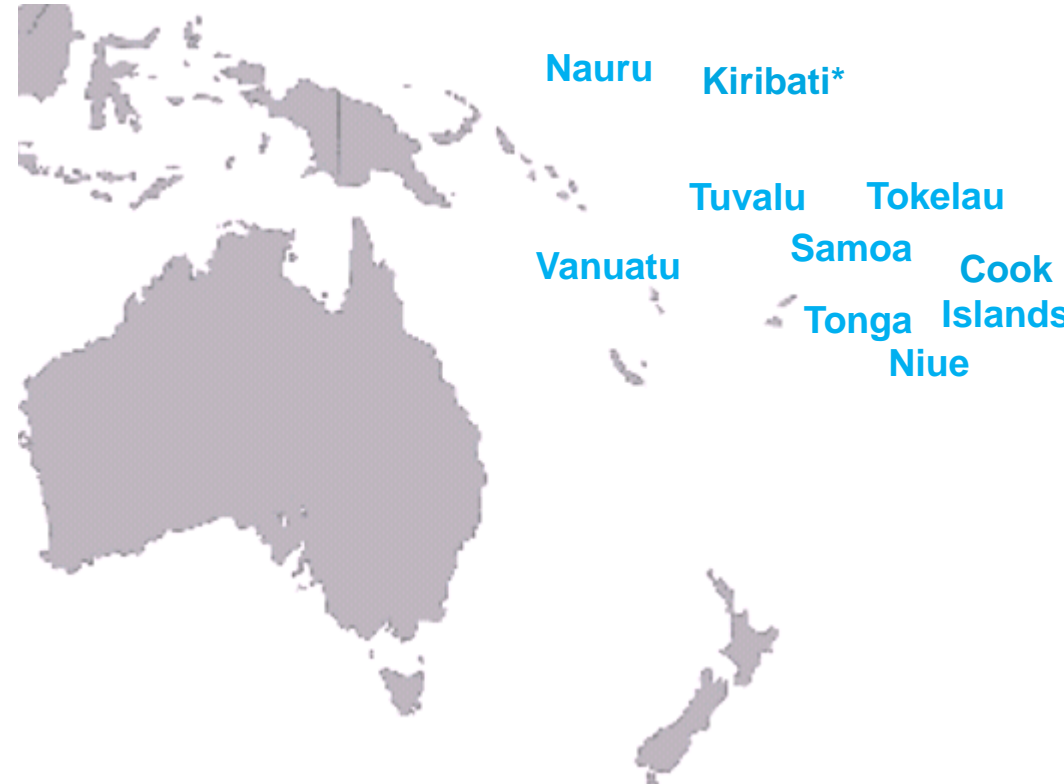

Introduce 3 new vaccinations:

- Rotavirus
- Pneumococcal disease
- Cervical cancer (HPV)

Across 9 Pacific Island Countries.

100,000 children and adolescent girls immunized.

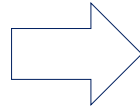

By working closely with each country's Government, the program will be sustainable, so generations of children and adolescent girls will be supported.
