RYLA 2018 - CODE OF CONDUCT

Awardees shall treat the camp buildings and facilities, and the environs, with courtesy and respect and abide by camp-site rules. Any facilities visited shall be treated similarly.

Awardees should treat each other and the Rotarians working in the programme with courtesy and respect.

Awardees are expected to take full part in the programme and attend all sessions. No smoking, alcohol or drugs allowed on the camp property.

Administration of the Code

Any breaches of the Code of Conduct will be acted upon immediately.

The Camp Mum and Dad and the Duty Rotarian will deal with any minor breaches of the Code of Conduct.

The RYLA Management Committee will deal with any major breach of the Code of Conduct. This committee will include: the RYLA Chairperson (or nominee), the Duty Rotarian, Camp Mum and Dad.

The Awardee involved will have the right to be heard, and to have representation.

It is expected that a major breach of the Code of Conduct will result in the Awardee being sent home.
