BACK AT THE CASHMERE CLUB

It was with great delight that we were able to return to Cashmere Club on Wednesday night for our regular meeting. A small turn out enabled us to all sit together along one long table and share a meal together.

For those who are hesitant or unable to come along in person right now, President Liz has organised a concurrent meeting set-up, so people can zoom in. This enabled a couple of Rotarians to zoom in and be part of the night.

Although the group was small, loud chatter and laughter could be heard through out the night, with many saying how good it was to see each other and be together again. To top off the success of the night, the meal was also particularly good.

Huge thanks to Shirley Harris– Meeting Reporter

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Humanity has unquestionably one really effective weapon—laughter. Power, money, persuasion, supplication, persecution—these can lift at a colossal humbug—push it a little—weaken it a little, century by century, but only laughter can blow it to rags and atoms at a blast. Against the assault of laughter nothing can stand. — Mark Twain
